NAMES OF MILLARD
JURYMEN ORDERED
STRICKEN FROM
THE COUNTY LISTSJudge Wurdeman Who Presided at Murder Trial Says Verdict of Acquittal on Charge of Killing Marshal Corner Was a "Miscarriage of Justice."SAYS HE EXPECTED A LIFE SENTENCEJurist, in Explaining His Action, Says 12 Men Did Not Display Intelligence Which Should Be Exercised in Such Cases.The names of the 12 jurors, who last night acquitted Willis Millard of the first-degree murder charge of killing Marshal Benjamin F. Corner, were ordered stricken off the jury
list of St. Louis County today by Circuit Judge Wurdeman, who presided
at the trial, and who said the verdict was "a miscarriage of justice."In his chambers, after making the order, Judge Wurdeman, in explanation of his action, made to reporters
the following statement for publication:"The names of these jurors must be stricken off. They must not be allowed to serve again. The entire jury list must be revised. From my impartial review of the evidence in the Millard case, I looked for a life sentence."These jurors did not seem to display the intelligence which jurors in criminal cases should exercise.
"This was a miscarriage of justice.
The moral effect of such verdicts
will be bad for St. Louis County.
If such men were to be left on the jury list it would mean that the State could not convict on circumstantial evidence. We must use greater caution in the new revision of the jury list, so that in future we will have intelligent jurors who will give the proper weight to evidence."Order Is Executed
The Jury Commission of St. Louis County is composed of Circuit Judge
Wurdeman, Circuit Judge McElhinney
and A. D. Wilson, clerk. The order of Judge Wurdeman was given to the order and Judge Wurdeman said that Judge McElhinney undoubtedly would approve it. The order was at once executed by the clerk of the commission.The Millard case jurors whose names were stricken off the list were:
Edwin Hamilton, cement worker,
Prospect Hill; Otto Reinhardt, arm-ature winder and proprietor of soft-drink garden, Hall's Ferry and St.
Charles; Theodore Simon, farmer, Oakville; Charles Lindemann, farmer, Florissant; Henry K. Knick-meyer, car repairer, Jennings; Joseph Marshall, mechanic, Wellston;
Henry J. Lenhart, farmer, Oakville;
Anton Jennewein, farmer, Affton;
George A. Weisenberg, laborer, Valley Park; Jasper Dutton, farmer, Hanover Heights; Edgar E. Potts, clothing cutter, Maplewood and Frederick Windhorst, gardener, Glendale.Preparations for a revision of the county jury list, in line with Judge Wurdeman's suggestion, were begun
this afternoon. The Circuit Clerk said he would frame a questionnaire to be submitted to residents of the county in a house-to-house canvass to determine the educational qualifications and fitness of men now on the jury list. The County Court will be asked to permit the expenditure of about $500 in making this canvass.To Be Tried for Corner's Death.
Announcement was made at Clayton today that, despite his acquittal of the Corner killing, Millard would be brought to trial on the first-degree murder charge of having shot and killed Night Sheriff Eugene S. Conroy.Both officers were killed in the early morning of Aug. 30, last, after they had halted an automobile in which were Millard and two other men. George V. Parr is jointly indicted with Millard for the Conroy killing. Their trial is set for March 21.The defense made for Millard in the Corner killing case was that there was no direct evidence that he fired at Corner and that there was a reasonable doubt that he was the slayer.The case was given to the jury in Judge Wurdeman's court at Clayton at 4:30 p. m. yesterday. The verdict was returned at 7:30 p. m.Three Ballots Taken.
Edwin Hamilton, a cement worker, foreman of the jury, told a Post-Dispatch reporter that three ballots were taken, the first being 3 to 4 for acquittal, the second 9 to 3 and the third unanimously for acquittal.Millard was accused of having followed the officers to the scene of the killing.

Republican Leaders
Discussing New Plan
for Dry EnforcementA NEW plan for enforcement of prohibition is being discussed among Republican leaders as a prospective policy of the Harding administration.
It contemplates abolishing the present dual enforcement machinery of the Treasury and Justice departments and centralizing
of full responsibility and authority under the Attorney-General.Harry M. Daugherty, who is to be Attorney-General, is known to have discussed the subject with Republican leaders at the Capital.Whether retention of a Federal Prohibition Commissioner is contemplated apparently has not been determined. It is understood, however, that all state prohibition enforcement agents
would be dispensed with.By the Associated Press.
COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 25.—
Harry M. Daugherty admitted today that some changes in prohibition enforcement have been talked over among Republican leaders. He said any such changes would have to be authorized by Congress and declared. Republican leaders had not decided upon any definite program.223 INDICTMENTS

ARMY FOODS SOLD
HERE CONDEMNED
AS UNFIT TO USEFour Dealers, Summoned by State Food Commissioner, Consent to Goods Being Dumped Into River.FOODSTUFFS BOUGHT
FROM GOVERNMENTOfficial Says Investigation Shows Those in Charge of Disposal Have Been Exceedingly Careless.Dr. E. L. Barnhouse, State Food and Drug Commissioner, today said to a Post-Dispatch reporter that much of the Government canned goods, which had been sold in St.
Louis and was being retailed in many places, had been found by his inspectors to be unfit for consumption.Four dealers appeared yesterday before Dr. Barnhouse, in answer to summonses, and after being informed of the finding of the inspectors, and of the law covering the matter, they consented that the unfit goods in their possession be dumped into the Mississippi River.Dr. Barnhouse said that after receiving anonymous complaints he had four inspectors from his office examine some of the Government canned goods. As a result officers of two wholesale grocery firms, a pie company, and a store selling army goods, were summoned and informed that part of their Government stocks had been found unfit for food.Dealers Gave Consent.
Dr. Barnhouse explained to the dealers that if they did not consent to the destruction of the goods they would be summoned into court on contempt proceedings, and they might be subject to fine for offering such goods for sale.The condemned goods, consisting of 440 cases of loganberries, 53 cases of soy beans, 147 cases of lentils and 26 cases of prunes, will be dumped into the river Monday by the inspectors. All of these foodstuffs were put up in cans. Dr. Barnhouse said that all except the prunes were sold by the Government directly or indirectly to the present owners.Carelessness Charged.
"I have found on investigation
that those who have charge of disposing of excess army and navy food products have been exceedingly careless in the manner of disposal," Dr. Barnhouse said. "They have not only permitted unfit canned foodstuffs to be sold, but have sold foodstuffs in violation of the law
to dealers handling food products.
These latter were sold supposedly to be disposed of for livestock feed."In selling this stuff for livestock feed, the Government did not see to it that the stuff was not sold in the market as fit, nor did it require those purchasing such unfit canned goods to give bond to insure that it would not be placed on the market
as fit. As a result, I dare say millions of cans of this food have been placed on sale throughout the country."

LARGE FORCES IN BRISK FIGHT AFTER AMBUSH IN IRELANDFifty Policemen, Beaten Off

hind Rocks, Are Reinforced and Renew Fight.COMMANDER OF CROWN FORCE FALLSAuxiliaries in Lorries Fired
On When Traveling on the Road Between Macroom
and Ballyvourney.By the Associated Press.
MACROOM, Ireland, Feb. 25.— Fifty auxiliary police, traveling in lorries, were ambushed between this village and Ballyvourney this morning by 300 men. The ambushing party opened fire from the cover of rocks along the road, killing one policeman and wounding six.The fight lasted two hours, at the end of which the military withdrew,
leaving the attacking party still in possession of its position.
Hundreds of reserves were then rushed up by the military from neighboring barracks, and the attack was renewed, with the assistance of battle airplanes.In the first assault the Major commanding the crown forces was killed and seven of his men wounded, one mortally. The casualties of the ambushing party were not learned. The crown forces were unable to recover
law for such offenses, or any sentence out of the military when they withdrew.King's Bench Decides That Military Has Full Power.
By the Associated Press.
DUBLIN, Feb. 25.—The King's Bench, composed of the Chief Justice and four other Judges, unanimously decided yesterday that a state of war existed and that the military had full power to deal with the insurrection without interference by the civil courts.The judgment was rendered in the case of John Allen of Tipperary, who was sentenced to death by a court-martial in Cork for having a revolver and ammunition in his possession. The defense was challenged before the King's Bench on the ground that the court-martial had no jurisdiction to impose the death sentence, which is not provided by law for such offenses, or any sentence out of the military when they withdrew.In a general order issued yesterday alluding to the killing of two soldiers at Macroom and three at Woodford, Galway, Tuesday, Gen.
Sir Nevill MacReady, the military commander in Ireland, says there is no doubt that these crimes constitute deliberate attempts to desperate the troops and tempt them to break the bonds of discipline."The Commander in Chief," says
the order, "expects the troops at Macroom and Woodford to be in the face of provocation such as would not be indulged in by the wildest savages of Central Africa, to maintain the discipline for which the army justly prides."

HARDING CONFIRMS
CHOICE OF HOOVER
FOR CABINET POSTPresident-Elect Announces Perfect Accord With Policies Urged by the Former Food Administrator.SAYS THE ENTIRE INCIDENT IS CLOSEDSelection of Henry Wallace of Iowa to Be Secretary of Agriculture Also Virtually Confirmed.By the Associated Press.
ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Feb. 25.— President-elect Harding's selection of Herbert Hoover to be Secretary of Commerce in the coming administration finally was confirmed by Mr.
Harding today after a series of declarations that at one time seemed likely to lead to cancellation of the appointment.Mr. Harding announced that he had found himself in "perfect accord" with the policies urged by Mr.
Hoover as a condition of his entering the Cabinet, and that the entire incident had been closed with a definite acceptance from the former Food Administrator.At the same time the President-elect virtually confirmed also the selection of Henry Wallace of Iowa to be Secretary of Agriculture. The selection of Wallace has been well known for some time, although previously Mr. Harding had declined to discuss it.Under the circumstances Hoover will enter the Cabinet with an unequivocal endorsement. So far as is known, no other member has outlined a department policy in detail as a condition of accepting his portfolio.It is expected that the result of Mr.
Hoover's acceptance of the terms laid down by the former Food Administrator will be to put the latter in a commanding position so far as the reconstruction of his department is concerned.No Formal Statement Issued.
Mr. Harding broke his silence regarding Hoover after repeated efforts had been made without result
to obtain confirmation of his appointment. The statement issued by the former Food Administrator in New York last night.
No formal statement was issued here, Mr. Harding simply saying that the whole question had been closed satisfactorily.Asked about the condition laid down by Hoover, which included instantaneous resignation of the department, Mr. Harding of a department policy for reorganization of the commerce department, the President-elect replied, "We are in perfect accord as to what the department ought to be made. I wouldn't want Mr. Hoover or any other Secretary to take a department unless he intended to do things with it."He added that he saw nothing out of the ordinary about the case except the publicity given it. Every other prospective Cabinet appointee,
he said, had been given the department of permanent department
policies."Has any other laid down stipulations as Mr. Hoover has?" he was asked.
"I don't like the form of your question," was the reply. "I wouldn't call them stipulations."In the course of his comment Mr.
Harding expressed surprise that Hoover had made a statement on the subject in New York last night. The President-elect said he had intended to announce the appointment here,
but that his prospective Secretary had acted entirely within his privileges in taking the initiative.

GRAND JURY ASSERTS
CONVICTS CARRY
GUNS, GO HUNTINGCole County (Mo.) Inquiry Body
Also Hears Prisoners Sometimes Go Away to Gamble.Special to the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 25.—
Convicts at one of the State prison farms at Alton, a few miles east of Jefferson City, are permitted to carry guns and go hunting, according to the report of the Cole County grand jury returned last night. No indictments were returned, but the report had this to say of convicts:"We recommend to the Prison Board to comply with the law with reference to prisoners running at large. We found that convicts from the State Farm at Alton, Mo., sometimes go down to Osage City, several miles from the farm, and gamble.
We also found that convicts are permitted to run at large and trespass on neighboring farms, picking blackberries, and that convicts are also permitted to carry guns and go hunting. We most earnestly insist that this practice be stopped.""We also recommend that the trustees be put under more strict surveillance because they go about the city on private errands of their own and sometimes gamble and get into other mischief."HARDING LEAVES PRESIDENT'S

TURKS ACCEPT COMMISSION OF INQUIRY IN EAST

Delegations Inform Allies
They Are Agreeable to Investigation of Population in Smyrna and Thrace.

GREEK PREMIER
TO CONSULT ATHENS

Says It Would Be Difficult to Halt Army and Expresses Surprise at Conference's Proposals.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—The Turkish delegations to the Near East conference here accepted today the proposed arbitration of the supreme council as between Turkey and Greece in determining the status of Smyrna and Thrace.

When the conference assembled
this morning the Turkish representatives made this announcement, and stated they were agreeable to the suggestion of the allied governments
that a commission of inquiry be appointed to verify the statistics on population of the districts in question.

Notice was given by the Turks
that they would reply at 5 o'clock
this afternoon to the other points at issue concerning the treaty. The question being asked of both the Turks and the Greeks by the supreme council is whether they are prepared to accept the result of such an investigation by the allies
regarding Smyrna and Thrace, subject to acceptance of the remaining terms of the Turkish peace treaty.

Greeks to Consult Athens.
Premier Kainourgiou of Greece appeared before the conference and expressed surprise that the allies should suggest a commission of inquiry and a cessation of hostilities.

He said it would be a task of the greatest difficulty for the Greek Government to halt the victorious army in its advance. Nevertheless, he would telegraph to the Government in Athens and submit the proposals.

London newspapers were astonished at the Turkish demands which were submitted to the conference.
The Daily Telegraph said: "The Turkish envoy, like the Bourbons, have learned nothing and have forgotten nothing. We confess our inability to understand what the Turks expect to gain by putting forward obviously inadmissible pretensions."

Even the Turkophile Morning
Post "asked leave to point out that Turkey did not win the war," and added: "Clearly the Turkish Nationalist delegates are looking toward Moscow and are gambling on the chances of a Bolshevik success
this spring."

The Chronicle said the Turks
would be likely to agree to the proposals if they got Thrace and Smyrna, "there being no power to compel their execution of other clauses of the Geneva treaty."

Divergencies Pointed Out.
The London Times, which chafes
at the delay which will result from the sending of a commission to the Near East, points out wide divergencies between the figures relative to racial populations in Smyrna and Thrace which were submitted by the Turks and Greeks. The newspaper remarks that a Turkish expert claimed that in the Vilayet of Aidin, including Smyrna, 79 per cent of the population was Turkish, and that in Smyrna itself, 57 per cent of the people were Turks. He asserted that 59 per cent of the population of Thrace was Turkish. On the other hand, M. Gounarakis, a Greek, declared that, even after the deportation of Greeks from Smyrna, the Turks and Greeks in that city were about equal in number, and in Thrace the Greeks outnumber the Turks by 20,000.

Both the Turks and Greeks have been told that only this week will be allotted to their affairs, as the allied delegates must devote next week to the Germans.

The Greek Premier at the conference yesterday made a strong plea for the enforcement of the treaty of Sèvres in its entirety, quoting at length Elliphiotou Venizelos, the former Premier, who has already left for Paris, greatly discouraged at the Greek prospects.

Greece was willing to adopt the advice of the allies, the Premier said, provided the fundamentals of the treaty were not changed, but further delay would exhaust Greece.

The Turks are jubilant, as delay is what they wanted.

Poland Protests Against Allies' Decision as to Silesia.

WARSAW, Feb. 25.—The Diet
adopted an urgent motion yesterday protesting, as contrary to Polish interests, against the recent decision of the Allied Supreme Council in London to permit resident and non-resident voters of Upper Silesia to vote on the same day in the plebiscite to determine whether the region shall be Polish or German. The newspapers comment bitterly on the decision, the radical press demanding
the resignation of Prince Spiecki,
the Foreign Minister.

ban Minister to the United States,

fect being made public in the Ofming, but always will you be assured of a superlative type of economy. (Third Floor.)

Shopping in the Girls' Store

Discloses a Host of Pert Taffeta Frocks

They had been shopping, you see, in the Girls' Store, and had found much for enthusiastic discussion as well as for pert, serviceable wear.

There are to be had—

HOUSE ACTION ON TARIFF IN TIME TO OVERRIDE VETO PLANNED

Only Serious Obstacle in Way of Approval Is Two-Cent Rate on Sugar. By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Speedy action by the House on the Fordney emergency tariff bill, returned to that body after a conference agreement on the Senate amendments to the measure, is planned by proponents in order to hasten its arrival at the White House and give time for an attempt to override a presidential veto, should that be necessary.

SHIP BOARD AGENT IN CITY

He Is Favorably Impressed With St. Louis as Location for Office. H. Y. Saint, representative of the United States Shipping Board, who is inspecting St. Louis as a possible location for an inland office of the board, said yesterday at a luncheon of the Foreign Trade Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce, that so far he was favorably impressed with this city's advantages for such an office. He advised that some large commercial organization sponsor a movement here under the slogan "American Goods in American Bottoms." W. Frank Carter, president of the Chamber of Commerce, said he would pledge his organization to such a campaign. Saint will be a dinner guest tonight of the World Trade Club, at the Annex Hotel. He and Mayor Kiel and James E. Smith, vice president in charge of waterways of the Mississippi Valley Association, will be smokers.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts if your back hurts or bladder troubles you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness and sleeplessness result from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

LABOR SENDING OUT PROGRAM TO UNIONS

After Adjournment of General Conference, Executive Committee Studies Details of Plan.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Details of the new program of organized labor designed to combat any general movement for institution of the "open shop" were before the executive council of the American Federation of Labor today when it resumed its sessions following the closing of the national conference of labor leaders adjourned yesterday.

The executive council also had before it a proposal that organized labor request Congress to repeal the Volstead prohibition enforcement act. It was stated, however, that final action on this matter probably would be withheld for the present.

While the council was meeting, official notification and copies of the declaration of principles adopted at Wednesday's conference were being sent out from the federation headquarters to all labor organizations throughout the country. Plans are in preparation also for the immediate launching of a nation-wide publicity campaign to gain public support for the declaration of principles.

Conference Adjourns

Federation officials declared today that the labor conference, which adjourned yesterday, was one of the most important and successful in the history of the organized labor movement.

"We feel confident that our program will go through," said Matthew Woff, vice president and member of the executive council. "More than 4,000,000 union workers in the country stand back of this movement, and we are confident of their earnest support. They will play a major role in putting over the legislative program. Each state and local organization will aid and abet our efforts in bringing our issues before the public and getting their support. They will also take such action as is necessary to get their Congressman and executive representatives to support organized labor's program."

Plea for Labor Man in Cabinet

Organized labor called upon President-elect Harding yesterday to appoint to his Cabinet as Secretary of Labor "a recognized representative of organized labor" and "a real spokesman of the working people of our country," and "who understands the toilers."

The request, made in the form of a telegram to the President-elect at St. Augustine, Fla., was declared by labor leaders to be practically an endorsement of the type of man of James Duncan of Quincy, Mass., a vice president and member of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor, whom they regard as a candidate who is a "recognized representative of organized labor."

The telegram was signed by President-elect Harding yesterday to appoint to his Cabinet as Secretary of Labor "a recognized representative of organized labor" and "a real spokesman of the working people of our country," and "who understands the toilers."

Message to Harding

"In view of the fact that you have under consideration for appointment as Secretary of Labor several candidates," said the message, "and because labor is deeply interested in who the individual will be at the head of the Department of Labor, we, the representatives of the national and international unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, and the representatives of the railroad brotherhoods, respectfully ask you to appoint as a member of the Cabinet to be Secretary of Labor a member of organized labor; one who is recognized as a real spokesman of the working people of our country and who understands the toilers; one who has lived, worked and counseled with them."

They have no desire to name any special person for this office, but we respectfully request, as citizens of our country, that the man to be appointed to represent us in your Cabinet shall be a recognized representative of organized labor."

The resolution authorizing the telegram was adopted by the labor leaders after a lengthy conference at which the Cabinet situation was discussed.

JUDGMENT AGAINST FORD UPHELD

$600,000 Damages Against Company for Not Completing Contract.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Damages of $600,000 awarded by a trial court to the Hotel Woodward Co. against the Ford Motor Co. were upheld here yesterday by the United States Court of Appeals. Failure of the Ford company to complete a contract which called for the leasing of a proposed addition to the hotel at Broadway and Fifty-fifth street was the basis for the suit.

Defense of the Ford company that there was no written memorandum on the contract, "if contract there was," was found untenable by the court. A letter written by L. B. Robertson from Detroit in May, 1918, as general attorney for the motor company, accepting the terms of the lease, was cited.

LONDON ACTORS AGAINST THEATERS ON SUNDAYS

Proposal to Open the Play Houses on That Day Defeated by Drama League.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—British actors and actresses have no desire to emulate their fellow players in America by giving Sunday theatrical performances. A proposal to open London theaters on Sundays has just been voted down by an overwhelming majority at a meeting organized by the British Drama League. Most of those who voted were members of the theatrical profession.

The suggestion that plays be given on Sunday was made by Arthur Housh, an actor, and Father Adley, a popular Socialist divine. Housh said that only such plays should be produced on Sundays as did not occupy the usual weekly bill and that acting on Sundays should be attempted at all, even at coercion, he declared, should be made illegal.

Father Adley urged that it was a question of common sense, not of religion, that the fourth commandment had long ceased to be God's law. He believed that Sunday should be a day of recreation, and that of that there is one thing that really does recreate it is seeing a play. George Bernard Shaw quickly had the house roaring with laughter. He began by supporting the proposal with extraordinary indignation in his capacity of playwright who wanted to make money out of his plays, and ended by condemning it with even greater fervor as a "friend of the actor."

"If you give up your present Sunday holiday under the impression that Sunday will be any different from other days in the theater, or that you will be getting any more money for seven days' work than for six, then I shall continue to hold the same opinion of your political intelligence as members of the British public, as I have held in the past."

ONTARIO PASTOR FOUND NOT GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

Minister Testified He Shot Inn Keeper in Self-Defense in Liquor Raid.

By the Associated Press.

SANDWICH, Ontario, Feb. 25.—One of Canada's most dramatic murder trials ended yesterday afternoon when a jury, after less than an hour's deliberation, found the Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin, former Liquor License Inspector and pastor of Sandwich Methodist Church, not guilty of manslaughter in killing Beverly Trumble, an innkeeper.

Trumble was shot and killed by the clergyman in a raid on the inn the night of Nov. 5. Accompanied by several of his liquor enforcement officers, the Rev. Mr. Spracklin visited the establishment, where, he testified, resistance was offered by Trumble and his employees. Threatened by Trumble, who flourished a revolver, the clergyman declared, he fired, convinced his own life was endangered.

RULING AGAINST THE PULLMAN CO.

Held Responsible for Property of Sleeping Passengers.

By the Associated Press.

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 25.—Passengers asleep in Pullman cars must be protected from theft of their property, according to a decision handed down by Judge W. Meredith Yeatman in Cincinnati Municipal Court. A motion made in behalf of the Pullman company for retrial of the suit of Herman Semmons, Cincinnati broker, who declared that his handbag disappeared when he was asleep in a berth, was overruled by the judge and the plaintiff was awarded damages.

The court's ruling, in effect, was "as a passenger would have no opportunity to watch his baggage when asleep, it follows that it is the duty of the Pullman company to maintain a reasonable watch over his property while he is occupying a berth."

DRY LAW CASES DISMISSED

Federal Judge in Chicago Rules Evidence Is Insufficient.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—The cases against seven of the 24 men on trial with "Mike de Pike" Heiter on charges of conspiracy in connection with an alleged whiskey ring, which was said to have brought hundreds of cases of whiskey here from Kentucky, were dismissed yesterday by Federal Judge Evans, who ruled there was not sufficient evidence against the men.

Those freed were William Knebelcamp and O. H. Wathen of Louisville, Ky.; Edward Smale, Detective Sergeant; Joseph Givlin, Wax Warman, Joseph Warner and Bryan Kane, the last five all Chicagoans.

PALE BEACH, Fla., Feb. 25.—Miss Georgette Cohan, daughter of George M. Cohan, and Ethel Levy (Mrs. Gladys Cushman White) and J. William Southern of New York slipped away last night to West Palm Beach and were married. It was known there was a romance between the two, but their marriage was "a bolt out of the blue."

The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock by Justice of the Peace Smith, after the couple had raced 15 miles to get the County Clerk to issue a license. After the wedding the newlyweds went to a party on Jesse Livermore's yacht, and announced the nuptials. The witnesses at the ceremony were James W. Daly Jr. of California and C. T. Sulzberger of Chicago.

FRIENDS BUY CHAIR FOR DANIELS

Souvenir of Cabinet Office Purchased for $141.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Friends of Secretary Daniels have solved for him a high cost of souvenirs problem involved in ownership of the cabinet unpolished chair he occupied at Cabinet meetings during his eight years in President Wilson's official family circle.

Daniels expressed a desire to take the chair home to Raleigh, N. C., with him when he returns next month to resume private life as a newspaper editor and publisher. He was told it would cost him $141. That about changed his mind, but friends intervened and purchased the chair as a gift for the retiring secretary. The Government profiting more than 100 per cent on the deal since the chair cost originally only $85 and the $141 represents replacement cost today.

RECITAL OF WORKS BY ST. LOUIS COMPOSERS

Twelve Writers Represented in Program of Songs, Piano Pieces, Trio and Sonata.

From guttural melody to modernism for modernism's sake was the range of a program of music by St. Louis composers which was presented last night at the Wednesday Club Auditorium, under the auspices of the St. Louis Art League. There was a large audience. Some of the works suffered from indifferent singing or playing, and numerous changes were made in the program as it proceeded.

Owing to the recent death of Mrs. Jessie L. Connor, four of her songs were sung and played by Mrs. Alice W. Connor and Ernest H. Kroeger. Instead of by the composer's daughters, Mrs. Rose Gaynor Faeth and Mrs. Dorothy Gaynor Blake. Also, others of her songs were substituted for two of the lyrics originally announced.

Max Gottschalk being in New York, the two scheduled movements from his Concerto for Violin in D Minor, on negro themes, were cancelled, and in their stead were given piano pieces by Edward E. Menges, Walter W. Stockhoff and Gottschalk. Richard J. Gebhard substituted for Gottschalk in a trio number. Because of the illness of Samuel Bollinger, the accompaniments to his group of songs were played by Miss Hazel Hope.

The program began with a group of piano pieces, played by Kroeger, who had paid the composers the compliment of memorizing their works. They included a dainty and tuneful "Pastorale" by F. Marian Halston; a melodious Venetian lull, "Condolence" by Louis Conrath; "Yearnings" by Arthur Lieber, which had a certain propulsion and vigor of feeling; a pretty and well-written "Bacharele" by Alfred G. Robyn; and "Fantasia," a piece with a contrasting scherzo and trio, by William H. Pommer.

Tribute to Mrs. Gaynor. As a preface to the songs of Mrs. Gaynor, Kroeger stated that few St. Louisans had any idea of her popularity as a writer of songs for children, and that one of her nursery lyrics, "Slumber Boat," was known to hundreds of thousands of juveniles. But the songs programmed were in adult style—"Rapture," "The Night Has a Thousand Eyes," "And I," and "Rondelet." These love songs were alike pleasing in their revelation of a spontaneous melodic gift, sincere feeling and adept workmanship. The piano accompaniment are all cleverly wrought. Mrs. Connor sang them with excellent expression and enunciation. As an encore she gave the famous "Slumber Boat"—a little inspiration of melody, which, of all the pieces on last night's program, one is tempted to believe was the only one with hopeful chances of longevity.

Next came a "Valse Boheme" by Menges; "The Hermit" from Stockhoff's "Mountain Songs"; and "Dance of the Elves" by Gottschalk, all played on the piano by Miss Margaret Cunningham. In the case of "The Hermit," one was struck by an originality and boldness without extravagance; the music had strength. An entire group would have been welcomed from this modernist composer, whose works have been warmly praised by no less a personage than Ferruccio Busoni.

The fourth group consisted of compositions by Mrs. Berenice C. Weyer. There were two piano pieces, played by the composer—"Legende," which seemed perceptibly to be telling a story, and a rather brilliant Etude in D Minor. A bizarre soprano solo, "To Ships," was sung by Mrs. Connor. Then came an eccentric trio for voice, violin and piano, given by Mrs. Connor, Gebhard and Mrs. Weyer. The title is "Tropic Memories." The effect was rather that of a free-for-all fight than an ensemble.

Kroeger's "Cello Sonata." Three well-written though somewhat memorably songs by Samuel Bollinger, whose symphonic poem "The Sphinx" was played some years ago by the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, were sung by Miss Mabel Ann Porter Kraus. The titles are: "Fanny," "African Lullaby" and "Youth and Love." The last is a lyric of Shakespeare.

Finally came the only work of the evening in one of the larger forms—Kroeger's new Sonata in C Minor, for violin and piano, which was played from manuscript by P. O. Anton, cellist, with the composer at the piano. Lack of preparation prevented an adequate performance. Anton finding it necessary to leave out entire passages, Kroeger is, of course, a highly trained musician, who knows his tools thoroughly; his work could not but be skillfully constructed, and correctly developed. It never lapsed from melody. But the themes themselves seemed somewhat naive and facile, without depth—save, perhaps, the opening motive of the slow movement. The piano part is eloquently written.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR PURE MILK FELL OFF $2106 IN YEAR

Receipts of Commission in 1920 Totaled $18,534 and Expenditures $16,474 —
Contributions Were $9431

POST-DISPATCH
READERS GAVE $2615

This Paid for All Free Milk
Distributed Between June 1 and Nov. 15—Decline in Certified Milk Production.

Contributions to the St. Louis Pure Milk Commission in 1920 fell off $2106 from those of 1919, and the 1920 receipts, as a whole, amounted to $18,534, less than those of the preceding year. It was announced yesterday at the annual meeting of the commission at the President's Association.

Receipts for the fiscal year, which ended Feb. 24, were $18,534.85, and expenditures totaled $16,474.49, leaving a balance of $2060.36. The operating expenses for the year being $2060.36 less than during the preceding year. However, the 1921 revenue will not begin to come in until about June 1, and the commission, it was stated, will have a deficit of about $1500 by that time.

Total contributions for 1920 were $9431.75, of which Post-Dispatch readers gave considerably more than one-fourth. Post-Dispatch readers, contributing through the Post-Dispatch Pure Milk and Free Ice Fund, gave $2615.75 for the total. As a result, instead of paying the commission's free milk bills from June 1 to Nov. 1, as it previous years, Post-Dispatch readers paid for all the free milk distributed by the commission between June 1 and Nov. 15, last year.

In the face of the commission's efforts, however, the infant mortality rate in St. Louis last year was larger than during the previous year. In 1919, for every 1000 births, there were 15.2 deaths of children under one year old. In 1920, the rate was 17.2 per 1000. It was announced by Secretary H. E. Mortland.

Reduction in Certified Milk. Mortland reported that of the eight producers producing certified milk, three discontinued such production last year on the ground that it was too long profitable. This meant a very serious reduction in the amount of certified milk. He pointed out, as one of these producers maintained 40 cows, another 20 cows, and the third 25 cows. The five remaining producers of certified milk have an output of about 600 gallons a day.

In his report Mortland complained that physicians use and prescribe certified milk for babies to an extent which he believes is desirable, remarking: "It is to be regretted that the medical profession has not availed itself to the degree which the work merits for we believe that our patrons have confidence that we are sincere in our efforts."

"It would be a crime," he continued, "if our city was to be deprived of this grade of milk, and I am not optimistic as to the future. Our success will be measured by the individual efforts of the medical profession and large interested in a better milk supply for the city."

The commission contracts with some producers to produce milk under certain rigorous sanitary conditions. Distributors contract to handle this milk under similar conditions. This is known as certified milk, and may be identified by the caps on the bottles, the caps being supplied by the commission.

31,050 Bottles Given Away. Certified milk in nursing bottles is distributed by the commission. During the last year, 31,050 bottles of milk were so distributed, of which 31,050, or more than 17 per cent, was given away to needy families. In addition, 538 quarts of cultured milk was prepared and distributed.

In addition to its laboratory, at 1724 North Thirteenth street, the commission maintains five stations from which milk is dispensed on the cash-and-carry plan. This distribution last year amounted to 155,668 quarts.

More stations are urgently needed. Mortland said, and estimate that a budget of $25,000 would be necessary to meet the 1921 requirements of the commission. He called attention to the need of a station in the negro district of Clark avenue and Market street. Negro children are worse undernourished than any others, he said, and thus more susceptible to tuberculosis.

There will be no reduction in the price of milk at the stations, Mortland said. The commission will not be able to buy its supply for any less than it is paying, he said.

NO ONE TO HEAR DRUGGISTS Special to the Post-Dispatch. JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 19.—A delegation of 21 druggists from St. Louis, Kansas City, St. Joseph and Jefferson City appeared last night to present objections to three House bills designed to impose additional State taxes upon products sold by them, only to find that members of the Ways and Means Committee had forgotten the hearing and had gone to the penitentiary to attend a boxing match.

The druggists oppose the proposed

10 per cent. state tax on a shaving brush, a like tax on toilet preparations and face powders, and a State license fee for the operation of machines for the vending of matches, peanuts and similar articles.

GIVES AWAY LIQUOR; FINED $500

By The Associated Press.
LA CROSSE, Wis., Feb. 25.—
Percy A. Bishop, Platteville auctioneer, who loaded his surplus stock of liquor in his automobile and began to give it away to his friends after his wife started a divorce action because of his drinking, was fined $500 in Federal Court yesterday.

and his car was confiscated. Probation Agent Kimball charged to be in a barber shop in Platteville when Bishop entered and presented the barber with a half-pint of good old liquor.

JURY ACQUITS MAN OF LIQUOR SELLING CHARGE

Bartender Testifies He Had Whisky to Use for Illness and That Policeman Took It.

Thomas L. Brennan, 29 year old, of 4425 St. Louis avenue, a bartender at 4406 St. Louis avenue, was acquitted by a jury in the Court of Criminal Correction yesterday of a charge of selling intoxicating liquor. The jury was out 20 minutes. Provisional Judge Grodzki tried the case in the absence of Judge Miller, who is ill.

Brennan was arrested at 5 a. m. Jan. 11, by Patrolmen Overbeck and Schreiber of the clean-up squad. The policemen testified they entered the place shortly after it was opened and ordered beer and whisky, presenting a dollar bill of which they had taken the number. Brennan served them and returned 60 cents in change, they testified.

Overbeck said he poured the whisky, which had been served to him, into a bottle and took it to the city chemist. An assistant city chemist testified the whisky contained 23.7 per cent of alcohol by volume. Brennan testified he had known Overbeck as a policeman for a number of years and knew that he was a member of the clean-up squad. He said that he had been ill that morning and took a pint of whisky to the saloon from his home. When the policemen entered he was mixing a hot lemonade for himself and had poured a quantity of whisky into a glass to add to the lemonade, he said.

The policemen ordered a soda and a package of cigarettes, Brennan testified, and he gave them 70 cents change out of a dollar bill. After they had taken the soda and cigarettes one of the policemen asked him to sell them some whisky. He said he refused and one of them walked behind the bar and poured a quantity of liquor from the pint he had brought into a bottle.

Brennan's testimony was corroborated by Robert Bradshaw of 2222 North Newstead avenue, a customer in the saloon.

SENATE COMMITTEE OFFERS AMENDMENT TO STRIKE BILL

Would Drop Three Provisions After Favorable Report.

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 25.—The Senate Judiciary Committee today reported favorably the McCullough bill to limit strikes and picketing, but offered an amendment to strike three provisions out of the bill.

Those provisions defined as "unwarranted industrial warfare" strikes or lockouts, to enforce terms of employment where reasonable notice has not been given; where no trade dispute involving issues of direct benefit to the acting parties is concerned, or when all but 20 per cent of the strikers have returned to work.

Senator McCullough, sponsor for the bill, drawn by Charles Houts of St. Louis, attorney for a number of employers' organizations, has served notice that he will fight the amendment on the floor. If the amendment is adopted the bill will apply to strikes against the Government, State, city or county, to those violating agreements between employer and employee or in violation of an award of an arbitration, voluntarily agreed to.

Unions are bitterly opposed to the bill and fought it at a recent hearing before the committee, of which Senator Irwin of Cole County is chairman.

GIVEN TWO HOURS TO STUDY TRAFFIC RULES, THEN FINED $100

Police Judge Mix today gave Sam Moore, a negro chauffeur, two hours in which to study the traffic regulations, and at the end of Moore's personal fine of $100 for speeding. A motor cycle policeman testified that Moore drove from Sarah street to Taylor avenue on Delmar boulevard, at 12:30 a. m. yesterday, at the rate of 55 miles an hour.

Moore pleaded that he came here from Chicago only three weeks ago and didn't know the speed limit. Judge Mix said 55 miles an hour was a violation of speed laws anywhere, and handed Moore a book of traffic rules to peruse while the Judge disposed of other cases. Moore read from 9:30 to 11:30 and then heard the sentence.

RECEIVER FOR A. B. A. RAILWAY

By The Associated Press.
ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 25.—Judge S. H. Sibley in the United States Court today signed an order appointing President B. L. Bugg as receiver for the Atlanta, Birmingham & Atlantic Railway. The order was issued on petition of the Birmingham Trust and Savings Co. of Birmingham, Ala., which alleged that it held a note for $50,000, which the road was unable to pay.

The railroad has contended recently before the Railroad Labor Board that its financial condition made necessary a reduction in wages. Instituted by the road some time ago.

Man Found Dead From Bullet Wound

Frank J. Viewiera, about 36 years old, of Ashville, Pa., at 10:15 a. m. today, was found dead from a bullet wound through the head, in his room on the second floor of a rooming house at 2024 Missouri avenue, East St. Louis, by James Roubanis, proprietor of the place. A revolver was found near the body. Several Canadian army uniforms were found in the room. A note was found by the body, explaining that he had been out of work for some time and was in poor health. He also left a letter addressed to Mrs. Mary Daugherty, Ashville, Pa.

RELIGIOUS TREASURES LOST

Famous Shrine Said to Have Been Burned in Church at Loreto.

By The Associated Press.

ROME, Feb. 25.—Pope Benedict has received a report showing the losses of irreplaceable religious treasures in the fire in the Chiesa Della Casa Santa in Loreto, to have been more than 12,000,000 gold lire ($2,400,000). The church sheltered the world famous shrine, according to Catholic tradition, the early home of Christ in Nazareth.

The shrine which was decorated with arabesques in gilded brass and the priceless statue of the Virgin were reduced to ashes. No trace remains of the precious cedar wood of which the statue was made. Other treasures destroyed included the altar, decorated with semi-precious stones, and a sacred dish supposed to have belonged to the Holy Family, which was lined with gold worked by Benvenuto Cellini.

FAVORABLE REPORT ON BILL TO LIMIT SALE OF REVOLVERS

Measure, Already Passed by Missouri House, Provides for Permits Under Approval of Sheriff.

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 25.—The bill to limit the sale of revolvers to persons who have obtained permits from the Circuit Clerk under approval of the Sheriff, and to require dealers to keep a record of the numbers of the weapons and identify the purchasers, was reported out of the Senate Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence last night with recommendation for passage, despite opposition of St. Louis pawnbrokers and hardware men. The measure already has passed the House.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Approval of $500,000 to provide ocean transportation for American relief supplies to China was approved yesterday by the Senate Appropriations Committee. The resolution would authorize the use of naval or shipping board vessels. About 1,500,000 bushels of grain can be transported, it was estimated. The grain and railroad transportation is to be donated.

BURKHAM ASSAILS MAYOR ON CITY HALL MACHINE ISSUE

Candidate Against Kiel for Nomination, in 13th Ward Speech, Criticizes Failure to Repair Streets.

KIEL SPEAKS AT SAME MEETING

His Address Differs Little From Others, Praising Faithful City Employees—
No Vote of Indorsement.

Lieutenant-Colonel Robert Burkham, candidate for the Republican nomination for Mayor, speaking last night before the Harding-Coolidge Republican Club of the Thirteenth Ward in Kiehlkamp's Hall, 1121 South Grand avenue, attacked Mayor Kiel, more directly than he has done in previous speeches, on the issue of the city hall machine and municipal economy.

Replying to the Mayor's explanation of the present condition of the streets, which is that street construction was suspended during the war, Burkham pointed out that the cost of operating the street department had been nearly as large in the years when no work was done as in other years, and asked whether this stood for economy.

Mayor Kiel, who spoke before Burkham arrived at the hall, said little which differed from his previous speeches. He praised the faithfulness of city employees, a considerable number of whom attended the meeting. No vote of indorsement was taken at the meeting, but Dr. A. H. Meyer, committeeman of the ward, announced that the ward precinct organization, after a thorough canvass to determine the sentiment of voters, had indorsed Burkham, and that the Harding-Coolidge Club had done the same. At the same time, it was announced that the Regular Republican Club of the ward, meeting at 3415 South Grand avenue, had indorsed Burkham. The last named club is known as John Schmol's organization.

Burkham refers to machine.

Burkham, in beginning his speech, read from the Post-Dispatch a quotation from an original poem, which was read by its author, Juanita Brady Halley, a stenographer, at the negro meeting which the Mayor addressed Tuesday night. The lines quoted were:

"The employees at the city hall
Will see Mayor Kiel don't fall.
"These are inspired words," said Burkham. "I gladly crown the author, even though she is on the other side."

"I had thought perhaps that questions of civic betterment would furnish the issues of the campaign; that we would talk of public improvements and efficiency in public service; that we might hear discussion of the United Railways settlement and the Mt. Creek sewer. But I see from this poem that the question at issue is one of jobs."

"I have said in my platform that I will not be a factional partisan Mayor, and will not build up a personal political machine to perpetuate myself in office. The people of the city have an opportunity to determine whether they prefer an administration with a political machine maintained for personal advantage, or an administration run in the interest of the public."

Doesn't Blame Employees.

"I don't blame any city employee for activity in this campaign, even if he circulated petitions during working hours, when you were paying him to work for you. I don't blame him if, in response to written directions, he went to a meeting at someone's residence and helped to organize the City Employees' Thirteenth Ward Kiel-for-Mayor Club."

"I am glad to see so many city employees at this meeting. I know the city employees pretty well, for I was six years at the city hall, in the Mayor's office as secretary and in the city Law Department. I don't blame the city employees, I say, if they feel called on to work in behalf of the present city administration. And, though it may not be a politic thing to say, I am going to say that no city employee who is competent, and who occupies an essential position, will be interfered with in his position when I become Mayor because he supported Mayor Kiel. I want my friends at the city hall to know this, so that they can deny rumors to the contrary."

"The idea of the head of the administration having 7000 employees to enforce his will, and these 7000 feeling that they must do as he tells them, is dangerous and un-American. I don't propose to have it when I am Mayor. A city employee has the same right to a free expression of his opinion, through his vote, as any other citizen. It is not healthy for the community to have a system which gives one man 7001 votes and everybody else one vote."

Burkham on Economy.

Burkham then took up the subject of economy, and said that the impending deficit, which, as told in yesterday's Post-Dispatch, has been estimated by Comptroller Nolte as $225,000 for the fiscal year to end early in April, was a most important municipal matter.

"At the Tenth Ward meeting last Sunday," Burkham said, "I said there would be a deficit of a half-million dollars. My opponent replied that he didn't know whether there would be a deficit, and that no one would know until the end of the fiscal year.

"The head of a business organization ought to know, within a few weeks before the end of the fiscal year, whether the year is going to show a loss. The fact is that on last Friday, two days before the Tenth Ward meeting, Mayor Kiel had received from the Comptroller a statement showing that there would be a deficit of the amount I have stated."

"What does that mean? Are we to go on piling up deficits? How long will our bonds hold their present high place in the market, which makes possible a favorable rate of interest, if we keep showing deficits of a million dollars or thereabout, every year? This deficit means that we will have to economize or go broke."

Cost of Street Department.

"The streets are in worse condition than for many years all over the city. Mayor Kiel says the reason for this is that street construction work was suspended, at the Government's request, during the war. But figures show that it cost practically as much to operate the Street Department in the war years as in other years, although no new work was being done. Also, we have been told that there has been no street construction in the last six to eight months, because of bond bill No. 23 (the union wage scale ordinance). But the figures show that the Street Department has cost nearly as much this year as the previous year."

The figures for the fiscal years ending April 1 of the calendar year are:

1914	$1,409,444.75
1915	$1,478,711.61
1916	$1,467,818.91
1917	$1,284,419.04
1918	$1,489,956.59
1919	$1,577,525.57
1920	$1,669,869.00
1921	$1,866,360

Mayor Kiel, in his speech, said he had had a lot of fun and worry in the Mayor's office in eight years, had made some wonderful friends, and had found an irrefutable fact.

KENTUCKY TOWN LEVIES TAX ON ALL FORMS OF OCCUPATION

Everyone Who Enjoys City's Facilities Must Pay. Administration Says.

BEATTYVILLE, Ky., Feb. 25.—Everyone who enjoys the protection and facilities provided by the city of Beattyville must pay for it, is the motto of the present city administration, according to Mayor J. B. McGuire. The statement was made as a result of the recent passage by the City Council of an ordinance which placed a license tax of $10 per year on each clerk, bookkeeper, stenographer, railroad agent or operator, electrician, bank cashier, and, in fact, virtually every occupation.

The extent of the licenses required has caused much comment.

"The recently enacted license ordinance was passed under article 181 of the Kentucky Constitution and section 2637, subsection 4 of the Kentucky Statutes, where power is given cities of the fifth class to provide for the payment of a license tax on the various trades, occupations and professions," said Mayor McGuire. "We think this power broad enough to permit the taxing of clerks, stenographers, bookkeepers, agents and operators, and we see no reason why the same should not be taxed for pursuing their various vocations in such a city."

It is true that this taxing of clerks, stenographers, etc., is a new question, and it seems that heretofore these occupations have escaped the license tax, but we take it that it was the object of the legislative body in enacting section 2637, subsection 4 of the Kentucky statutes to require all persons, of whatever remunerative occupations in life, to pay their just proportion of all taxes for the upkeep of their government."

ELECTION BOARD TO ASK INDICTED MEN TO QUIT

Letter to Judges and Clerks Under Charges to Be Drawn at Meeting Tomorrow.

The Election Board at a meeting tomorrow afternoon, will prepare a letter to judges and clerks of election who were indicted on charges of making a false count and return in the primary last August, asking them to resign their places, to permit the appointment of others before the primary of March 11.

Fifty judges and clerks, 20 of them Democratic and 23 Republicans, in 10 precincts of 3 wards, were indicted as a result of the grand jury's inquiries into primary fraud charges. A number of those indicted were removed or resigned before the November election.

The suit of H. S. Feinstein, a Republican judge of election in the Twenty-fifth ward, Sixteenth Precinct, to prevent the opening of the ballot box in that precinct, is now pending before the Supreme Court.

If the court decides that the box in question can be opened, the 59 indicted election officials can be prosecuted; if the court should decide in Feinstein's favor, the prosecutions would probably be dropped, as the decision would prevent the opening of the ballot boxes in court as evidence.

If the court decides the case before the coming primary, political workers and election officials will then know whether frauds in this primary will be punishable. The effect of the decision, it is believed, will be important in discouraging or encouraging frauds in the coming primary.

Chairman Edwards said today that the Election Board would make it clear, its letter to the indicted men, that it did not intend to prejudge their cases, but that it wished to avoid any embarrassing situation in the coming primary.

Two large audiences heard ST. LOUIS SYMPHONY CONCERTS

Frederick Fisher Pleases Bloomington Music Devotees With Programs.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Feb. 25.—Two audiences that filled the Bloomington College yesterday afternoon and last night attended the concert given by the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra.

Pupils of the public schools filled the auditorium for the afternoon concert. Frederick Fisher, acting conductor, talked to the children before the opening of the program and between numbers. He asked if they recognized the various instruments of the orchestra, and as he named each instrument a musician arose and played a short melody. Three dances from the "Nut Cracker Suite" by Tchaikovsky, the final movement from Symphony No. 4 by Tchaikovsky and "Impressions of Italy" by Charpentier, were pleasing numbers on the program. Michel, Gustkott was the soloist, playing the D'Amore concerto, and as an encore Rach's "Bourree" without accompaniment last night.

TO PURCHASE EMBASSY SITES

U. S. Under Bill, Will Charge Off Amounts Against War Debts.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—After a hot debate, the House yesterday adopted a Senate amendment to the diplomatic appropriation bill providing for the purchase of embassy sites and buildings abroad and the charging off of the amount against the war debt of any of the nations from which obtained. The bill was sent to conference.

Republicans and Democrats alike declared the proposal was the most monstrous thing of the kind ever put before Congress. They said it was beneath the dignity of the United States and would be the entering wedge for other trades by foreign countries which soon would be offering barren islands to wipe their ledgers clean. There was no disagreement on the amendment to accept J. Pierpont Morgan's offer to turn over his London house to the Government as a home for the American Ambassador, or to an appropriation for the purchase of an embassy building in Paris.

Annexation Bill Favored.

A resolution favoring the bill before the Legislature to enable St. Louis County to hold annexation elections was passed by the Junior Chamber of Commerce last night.

Another resolution adopted urged an increased police force. Speakers were George B. Logan, an attorney, on "The Life of Abraham Lincoln," and Prof. Thomas Marshall, of the Washington University history department, on "The Life of George Washington."

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT ABANDONS FOREIGN AIRPLANES

Metal Monoplanes Shipped From Denmark Discarded as Safety Precaution.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Accidents resulting in the loss of six lives have caused the Postoffice Department to discontinue the operation of the metal monoplanes purchased abroad, John A. Jordan of the Air Mail Service said today before the House Postoffice Committee. Three of the eight planes have been burned while in operation. The committee inquired particularly into the burning of one of the planes at La Crosse, Wis., Feb. 19, in which three men lost their lives. Jordan said an investigation had not disclosed the cause. The eight planes were shipped to the United States from Denmark and were constructed either in Germany or Holland, the committee was told. The hearing was marked by frequent clashes between Chairman Steienson and Jordan, as to responsibility for the accidents.

CITY COMMITTEES TO NAME SCHOOL BOARD CANDIDATES

Decision Reached by Both Republicans and Democrats After Hearing Law Explained by Election Commissioners.

PLAN WILL SAVE
CITY ABOUT $7000

Under Arrangement at Least Three of the Five School Board Members to Be Chosen Likely to Be Women.

Party nominees for the five places on the Board of Education to be filled at the municipal election on April 5, will be chosen by the City Central Committees of the Republican and Democratic parties. This was decided at meetings of the Democratic and Republican committees held yesterday and addressed by members of the Board of Election Commissioners, who explained the law. The former system of selecting nominees was by party conventions, delegates to which were chosen at special primaries. Nonpartisan candidates may be placed in the present case have been chosen by petition. Four Republican members and one Democratic member of the bi-partisan Board of Education, which has a membership of 12, are to be nominated by the party committees. The Board of Education is likely to have three women members, should the party states be elected. Several women have become candidates by petition.

Agreement of Committees.
The Democratic Central Committee, meeting in the afternoon, agreed to make the nomination of the Democratic candidate if the Republican Central Committee, which met in the evening, did likewise. The Democrats left the tentative selection to the Women's Democratic Committee, of which Mrs. R. E. Oldfather is chairman. This committee has agreed on Mrs. Roscoe Anderson of 3783 Kingsbury place as its candidate. Mrs. Anderson is president of the College Club and recording secretary of the National Association of Collegiate Alumnae. She is a graduate of the University of Missouri. The Republican committee is virtually agreed that of the four candidates it will name, two will be women. None of the candidates has been selected.

The party committees must make their selections not later than 10 days before the election, or by March 24. The two dominant parties are the only ones to participate in elections for the Board of Education because of the law requiring participating parties to have polled a certain percentage of the vote at the preceding presidential election.

The Nonpartisan Candidates.
Chairman Strodtman of the Republican committee said last night that some of the nonpartisan candidates may also be selected as the Republican candidates. Some of the nonpartisan candidates are known as Republicans. The seven who have been selected by petition so far are Mrs. B. F. Bush, Mrs. Elias Michael, Mrs. J. A. Mowrey, Mrs. Norman Windsor, C. W. Johnson, Harry A. Roskopf and W. Palmer Clarkson.

Women have had the right to membership on the Board of Education since 1907, but none has been elected.

The city will be saved the expense of extra primaries, amounting to $7000, by the action of the City Central Committee. School Board candidates may not be nominated at the municipal primaries, which this year will be held on March 11.

"DUMMIES" FOR SALOON MEN
Prohibition Agents Say Men Hire Others to Serve Sentences.
NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Prohibition agents charged here today that saloon keepers, sentenced to jail for violating the Volstead act, are substituting "dummies" to serve their terms. After pleading guilty, the agents said, the saloonkeeper is permitted two days' grace to wind up his business affairs and then hires his "dummy," generally a barroom hanger-on, for $75 or $100, who presents himself at the jail.

Natural Death Verdict by Coroner.
By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—Mrs. Nancy Chamberlain, 51-year-old art devotee, whose body was found in a geranium bed in her yard, where it had been buried by her daughter and granddaughter, died a natural death, according to the verdict of the Coroner's jury, which yesterday completed the inquest. The daughter and granddaughter, who con-

UPRISING AGAINST COSTA RICA IN PANAMA

Coat of Arms Torn From Con-sulate After Costa Ricans Occupy Coto District.

By the Associated Press.
PANAMA, Feb. 25.—Violent anti-Costa Rican demonstrations occurred in this city last night, reaching their culmination in an attack upon the Costa Rican Consulate. The coat of arms was torn from the door of the consulate and was trampled under the feet of the crowd.

The demonstrations began early in the evening, and a short time later
a cheering crowd appeared before the National Palace and called upon President Porras for a speech. The President made a patriotic address, calling upon "loyal Panamanians" to present themselves today for the formation of military forces in case
such a step should be necessary.

Late in the evening the presidential office made public telegrams confirming reports that Coto, a district at the Pacific end of the Panaman-Costa Rican frontier, had been occupied by Costa Rican forces.
Tomás J. J. Costa Rican Consul, who is a native Panamanian, has resigned his post, while two brothers-in-law of President Porras, who have been holding offices in the Panamanian administration, also resigned, being Costa Ricans by birth.

The dispatch of an armed expedition to the district of Coto was ordered, as far as can be ascertained, without notification being sent to the United States Government. Since the United States guarantees the integrity of Panama, this disregard of the good offices of Washington was the subject of considerable comment here.

"Costa Rica has occupied by force
the district of Coto, on the Pacific boundary, which we have possessed
under the status quo," said an official statement issued here last night.
"She claims this territory in accordance with the award handed down in 1914 by Justice White of the United States Supreme Court, who was named arbitrator. Panama has declined to accept his decision."

In addition to the force of 60 national police sent to the Coto district, there are unconfirmed reports that 300 more men have been sent to the Atlantic end of the frontier near Locas del Toro.

Panama Asks U. S. to Intercede in Costa Rican Controversy.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The United States Government was asked by Panama yesterday to use its good offices to avoid any bloodshed in Central America growing out of the alleged invasion of Panama soil by Costa Rican troops.

Acting on instructions from President Porras, Charge d'Affaires Lefevre of the Panama Legation, informed the State Department that what first advised described as an influx of political refugees from Costa Rica to Panama was actually an armed invasion. Lefevre requested that the United States intercede with the Costa Rican Minister here.

WHISKY THIEVES GUILTY OF STEALING THE BARRELS

Despite Court's Ruling, the Jury Held the Contents to Be Whiskies.

OSWEGO, N. Y.—Police Captain
Charles N. Edland, Patrolman Joseph Longway and Edward Driscoll and John F. Otis, a Commissioner of the City Health Department, were found guilty by a jury here of petit larceny in connection with the stealing of two barrels of bootleg whisky.
The question of property value was raised. Judge Corville, the presiding Judge, decided that inasmuch as the appellate courts have never ruled on the question he would hold that whisky has a presumptive value.
The jury, however, determined that whisky has no legal value, but that the barrels containing it were worth $20 and brought in a verdict of petit larceny.

TWO EXECUTED IN OKLAHOMA

Men Admit Their Guilt Before Entering Electric Chair.

By the Associated Press.
MCALISTER, Ok., Feb. 25.—John G. Ledbetter and Robert W. Blakeley were electrocuted at the State penitentiary here early today. Both had been convicted of first degree murder.
Ledbetter was the first to enter the chair. "I am guilty," he said.
Blakeley said before he entered the chair, "I am guilty of the crime of which I am charged. I have made my peace with God."

Blakeley was married and had five children. Ledbetter was unmarried.
Pleas to Gov. Robertson for executive clemency were unavailing. Both men smiled as they entered the chair. The men had been residents of Muskegon.

MRS. HARRIMAN SEEKS DIVORCE

Former Baltimore Belle Asks for Third Decree of Separation.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEWPORT, R. I., Feb. 25.—Mrs.
May Brady Harriman of Newport and New York, twice a divorcee, has petitioned for a divorce from her third husband, Herbert Melville Harriman, according to papers filed in the Superior Court here. This divorce petition was sealed. It became known, however, that the grounds
mentioned were the customary ones of neglect to provide.

Mr. and Mrs. Harriman have been married for 12 years. Mrs. Harriman was formerly Miss May Brady of Baltimore and a society belle at Narragansett Pier. Her first husband was Albert Stevens, whom she di-vored, and her second husband was a Capt. Hall of the English army, whom she also divorced.

SENATE PASSES BILL BY MISTAKE, AND STANDS ON IT

Vote Taken After Explanation of Another Measure—Senator Who Brought It Up Apologizes.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 25.—
Possibilities of the perfunctory explanations usually given of measures of little interest to the average legislator, when they are called up for action, were illustrated in the Senate yesterday afternoon, when a bill by Senator Irwin of Cole County, was passed, after Irwin, under the impression that the number belonged to another bill, had explained
the latter. The Senators present had voted with little apparent interest, and only laughed when they discovered that they had passed something in the belief it was something else. No objection was expressed, and after Irwin had apologized, stating that he had not desired to take advantage of the Senate, and told what it really was, the action was allowed to stand.

The measure was one of the children's code bills, providing for the amendment of the statute punishing wife for child abandonment, neglect or abuse, making its terms more drastic. The bill provides that abuse of a child by either of its parents shall be punished by fine up to $1000 or by imprisonment up to three years, or both, and for desertion or non-support, by fine up to $1000 or imprisonment up to one year, or both.

High C without "metallic" suggestion!

A Brunswick achievement vouched for
by highest musical authorities

THE severe test of a phonograph is in rendering "high notes"—especially soprano.

Note this when buying a phonograph.
Note too, how many instruments vibrate—
sound "metallic"—when these high notes are reached. Then hear The Brunswick.

Hear the full range of "high notes." High
C, in piercing intensity, without slightest
"metallic" intrusion!—clear toned, vibration-less. And you will marvel at difference so great in phonographs.

Thousands of music lovers have made this comparison. And chosen The Brunswick.

Highest musical authorities have made it.
And in the homes of great musicians, both in Europe and America, you will find the Brunswick Phonograph.

Due to the Brunswick Method of Reproduction

This remarkable method is a patented feature of The Brunswick. No other phonograph has it.

In it are embodied
the Oval Tone Amplifier of moulded wood,
and the Ultona, an

all record reproducer, by means of which all makes of records can be played with a clarity of expression almost startling to one accustomed to hearing only the ordinary type of phonograph.

Sustained notes of mellow quality and mighty crescendos of volume are conveyed with equal facility. The notes of the piano are clearly the true notes of the piano; those of the violin unmistakable in their wailing sweetness, and the voice given its fullest expression without mechanical suggestion.

Hence, the position of The Brunswick in the musical world is Supreme.

And buying any phonograph without hearing The Brunswick is a mistake.

The nearest Brunswick dealer will be delighted to demonstrate this super-phonograph.
Hear it. See it.

Made in Standard models and authentic Period Designs, in which good music is charmingly combined with the highest expression of the cabinet makers' art.

A Word About Brunswick Records

You may think there is "no difference" in records. That the same place is alike on all records.
Just for the joy of it,
compare "The Love Nest," as interpreted on a Brunswick, with any other record. Compare
all the popular "hits"—
the classics too—and you will know what a wonderful difference Brunswick Interpretation makes.

MAN FOUND DEAD IN SALOON YARD WAS A TEAMSTER

Shot in Right Chest Shortly After Five or Six Men Had Arrived at Place at 2901 Cass Avenue.

PROPRIETOR TELLS OF HEARING QUARREL

Says Two Shots Were Fired in Saloon, After Which Men Ran Out—Victim Is 6 Feet 3 Inches Tall.

The body of a man who was found shot to death in a yard in the rear of William Woods' saloon, 2901 Cass avenue, at 5:30 o'clock last night, was identified as that of Joseph Wilkan, 23 years old, of 2841 Burd avenue, a teamster.

Identification was made by Wilkan's father, Gerhard Wilkan, a lumber piler, with whom he resided. He told the morgue superintendent that his son had no enemies, so far as he knew, and that he could not account for the murder.

The elder Wilkan said that his son formerly was employed by a construction company on Hamilton avenue, but that he lost his job about three weeks ago, and when he left home at 11 o'clock yesterday morning he said he was going to Easton avenue to look for work. That was the last time he was seen by any of his relatives.

Wilkan was shot in the right chest shortly after five or six men had driven to the saloon in an automobile. Accounts differ as to whether the shooting was in the saloon or in the yard.

A telephone message to the Dayton Street Police Station at 8:15 p. m. said there had been a shooting in the saloon. About the same time a policeman on the beat was told of the shooting. He entered the saloon and found the bartender, Albert Vohwinkel, behind the bar, and Woods, the proprietor, in a rear room. No one else was there. When he asked if there had been a shooting Woods pointed to the rear door.

The policeman opened the rear door leading to the yard and found the slain man lying in the yard with his feet near a step at the door. James Scott, 26 years old, of 1415 Glasgow avenue, was bending over the man. He was excited and unable at the time to explain his presence, but later said he had heard the shots and ran from his home a short distance away to see what happened. He was held for further investigation but is not thought to have any connection with the shooting.

Woods told policemen he was in a room adjoining the saloon when he heard several men enter. A few seconds later, he said, there were angry words and two shots were fired in the saloon. He then heard the noise of men running out, and when he entered the saloon only the bartender was there.

Vohwinkel, the bartender, said five or six men entered the saloon and he was preparing to serve drinks to them when they all went into the rear yard. He did not say he heard shots, but said that if there was any trouble it was in the yard.

Policemen who searched the saloon found no whiskey and no weapons. Eight revolver cartridges were in a drawer behind the bar. A bullet was found partly imbedded in the floor near a card table and there were bullet holes in a swinging door and in the wall. The last two holes may have been made by the same bullet. From the location of the bullets it was judged that the direction of fire was toward the door leading to the yard.

Men Seen to Depart in Auto.

Persons in the neighborhood told policemen that just before the shooting five or six men drove up in an automobile and went into the saloon. After several shots had been heard men ran out of the saloon, got into the automobile and drove east in Cass avenue.

In the man's coat pocket were nine tickets for an automobile raffle for the benefit of Walter Casey. There also was a memorandum of the numbers of tickets sold. Walter Casey was one of seven men captured by a posse after the robbery of the Merchants and Farmers' Bank at St. Clair, Mo., about two weeks ago. He was brought to the St. Louis jail for safekeeping and is out on bond.

All members of the detective force today looked at the man's body but could not identify him. Finger prints also were taken, but did not correspond to any in the possession of the police.

Police are investigating to learn if the killing had any connection with the shooting, Feb. 17, of Leo Hanney, about three blocks away. Hanney was shot near Twenty-second and Madison streets. He said his assailants were two men who stepped out of a doorway but he never gave their names. Hanney recovered.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Decency.

Some Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
"There was a letter signed 'Justice' a few days ago which I believe merits a reply. 'Justice' needs enlightenment. It is not necessary for the young ladies to follow the styles adopted by Mrs. Harding—not at all necessary for them to wear skirts 'dragging in the dust,' or any other prescribed length or cut. But for their own sake as well as the sake of others let them at least conform to the ordinary rules of decency. This does not necessarily mean that they must be modest—just decent. The writer has personally observed young ladies—not girls—wearing hostess with skirts just about meeting the tops of said hostesses, and have knees bobbing out with every step. This was noted three times on one trip from Eighth street to Eleventh street, on Olive. Is this observing the rules of decency? I do not think so. If these young ladies are out to attract attention, they surely succeed, but of a most unfavorable nature. It is absolutely disgusting and from a man's point of view. Such indecency is not entirely the fault of the young ladies, but any mother who brings up a girl with the idea that she must be stylish at the cost of decency ought to be tarred and feathered. Let's have decency as well as 'Justice.' DECENCY.

The Laundry Combine.

It seems to the writer that it was about time someone in authority, the District Attorney, for instance, was looking into the laundry combine. I see they are now adding 1 cent per package for "insurance." The charges here are now 25 to 40 per cent higher than they are in Kansas City. A VICTIM.

Swedenborg's "Home."

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
In your paper of Feb. 13, A. H. S. comments on a musical criticism in the morning paper. At the end of his letter he quotes one Swedenborg as having said: "When in Rome be a Roman." Would like to know if A. H. S. means Emanuel Swedenborg, the Swedish seer and philosopher. If so, I would be obliged if A. H. S. would tell me where in Swedenborg's works this expression occurs. STUDENT.

Another Dirt-Roadster.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
What are we going to do with the $40,000 road fund which the city voters and a few farmers voted on the State? In the first place, Missouri's population is not big enough to justify it now. I have read statements in St. Louis papers that soldiers returning from Europe all say the roads are fine all over the country. So they are, and have been for many years. Cheap labor and cheap material built the roads. When Missouri's roads are cut down to five and ten acre tracts we will be in a condition to build hard-surface roads like Europe. Just now we farmers of Cooper County will be satisfied with good dirt roads, something we have never had yet.

Now the whole thing in a nutshell is just this: The big cities and little towns all over Missouri are maneuvering to connect all the big towns in Missouri with a tourist highway instead of a farm-to-market road, which is the real necessity and should be built first. They want a road from St. Louis to Springfield, from St. Louis to Kansas City, on to St. Joseph, from St. Louis through North Missouri and about two crossroads running north and south across the State. If there should be any money left they might build a road across each county. No one living today will live to see hard-surface roads all over Missouri. They claim these roads will cost from $25,000 to $45,000 a mile. If we must blow in $40,000, $50,000, $60,000, Cooper County wants her share, which will be about $25,000, and we will show some good dirt roads that we can travel the year round. Each county should have its automobile tax. If we can't get farm-to-market roads, the best thing to do is to cancel the bonds. Dunceton.
G. C. HARNES.

A Man With Vision.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
St. Louis with nearly 1,000,000 souls is a patchwork city, with no symmetry, no general beauty and no facilities adequate for its needs.
"Its free bridge is half a failure. Its river and rail terminal is but a dream. Yet it is the one thing that would revolutionize St. Louis. Surely there is no found majority timber strong enough, big enough, a man with a real vision, to lead the people on such a great enterprise." C. J. GRIFFITH.

Get Up Earlier.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
The problem of "City Farmer," who wants a return to daylight saving so he can have an extra hour for work in his garden is very simple. Since he does not object to arising an hour earlier to go to work, let him get up, anyway, and do his 40 minutes of play with the rubber and roses before departing to his office, and allow the remainder of the population to benefit by the hour of most refreshing sleep one gets in this latitude—the hour around sunrise, when the air has finally cooled off and benediction slumber is really possible. T. T. T.

KNIFING THE BUDGET.

The introduction of a budget bill, it is said, will be the first order of business at the special session of Congress to be convened by President Harding. It will be remembered that a budget bill, passed at the last session of Congress, was vetoed by President Wilson, on advice of the Attorney-General, who held that one provision was unconstitutional. This bill received the unanimous support of the Senate, and there were only three negative votes in the House. Such preponderance of sentiment seemingly insures the passage of the measure at the next session. Unfortunately, reports from Washington indicate that a covert opposition has developed which seeks to void the plan in important particulars.

When the bill was passed by Congress the House changed its rules of procedure by appointing a Budget Committee on Appropriations. This was done at the instance of friends of the plan, who explained that such committee was necessary for an efficient functioning of the budget system; but the creation of the Budget Committee, it seems, will deprive a number of old committees from passing upon departmental appropriations, and certain members of those committees, reported as determined to retain this prerogative, are said to be behind the scheme to abolish the Budget Committee and revive the old, extravagant, log-rolling practices which the budget system is designed to extinguish.

It was a great pity if the long fight for a budget system, which began early in the Taft administration, should end in a more or less hollow victory. The Post-Dispatch believes that the people are in no mood to be trifled with by Congress on this issue, or that they will be satisfied with the form of a budget system that has been shorn of its substance.

The need for economy in our public affairs may not be appreciated by some members of Congress, but it is a matter of vital concern to the people of the United States. Economy must be had, not in platitudes, or stump speeches, but in the actual day's work of Government. And since the budget system is the only business way of conducting the Government's business, and, therefore, the only way by which economy can be introduced into public affairs, the people are demanding a real, bona fide budget system. If Congress attempts to palm off an imitation budget plan, under which the age-long waste and extravagance will continue, the people will know how to deal with their betrayers.

AN OLD-FASHIONED RAILROAD MAN.

Railroad men have long delighted to honor Milton H. Smith, the veteran president of the Louisville & Nashville, who has died at the age of 85. He was recognized as one of the ablest executives in the railroad world. He was not an empire builder in the sense of Hill. The property he directed called for a different kind of genius—for intensive development rather than imperial expansion.

He met the requirements very wonderfully. He recognized that it takes people to make a railroad successful. He stimulated the building of homes along his line by shipping building materials free. To that kind of rebating no exception could be taken. It proved a most constructive policy.

Of course, Mr. Smith possessed many other qualities, such as a thoroughly practical knowledge of the railroad business, a prodigious capacity for work, scant patience with incapacity and a positive horror for favoritism except on merit. He was not an easy boss, but if he drove hard, everybody knew that he drove himself a little bit harder than anyone else. One of his theories was that no man was worth more than $25,000 a year to a railroad, and when the directors voted him a larger salary some years ago he refused to accept it. He had other old-fashioned ideas. Politics and finance, for example, had no charm for him. The job of a railroad president, he maintained, was to run his railroad. That is what Milton H. Smith did with the Louisville & Nashville, tirelessly and successfully.

THE ORCHESTRA'S LEADER.

The selection of a conductor for our Symphony Orchestra is likely to prove a difficult task. Among the factors contributing to the difficulty is the fact that this is a fact which must be faced. It should be faced in a spirit of justice to the late leader who gave so many years of painstaking, sincere and truly notable service to the city. The death of Mr. Zach elicited high estimates of his work. Those estimates were deserved. But the St. Louis which Mr. Zach found when he came here in 1907 is not the St. Louis of today. Sound progress has been made, the making of which, possibly, called for the qualities which Mr. Zach possessed. The present is another era.

Would it be the part of progress to follow precisely in the footsteps of the pioneer? The Zach adherents will doubtless say so, but we believe that is a debatable question. In any event the statement can hardly be challenged that the symphony orchestra is first distinction in these later years have mostly had conductors of what, we suppose, might be called the coloratura school.

To be sure, a conductor, whatever his genius, cannot of himself evolve an orchestra of premier quality. To put it bluntly, he must have the money with which to do it.

to procure the talent and keep that talent employed exclusively by the orchestra during the concert season. St. Louis, seemingly, has not yet reached the point to accord a conductor that sort of support, but could not a conductor be found who would expedite the development of our enthusiasm to that point? Such leaders are to be had. Other cities have found them. Why not St. Louis?

THE TASKS OF THE POLICE.

The new head of the Board of Police Commissioners, Mr. Miller, says that the police force of the city is not large enough to cover the territory; it needs an increase of from 300 to 500 men.

If the new board persists in the policy of lawless raids with which it inaugurated its regime, the police force will have to be doubled to accomplish its task. But a brief glance at the duties assigned the task will throw a flood of light on the question of efficiency in dealing with real crime and criminals. Among the tasks of the police are:

Searching the premises of restaurants and soft-drink shops whose proprietors are suspected of selling alcoholic beverages or serving improper characters. Searching and arresting proprietors and waiters of public resorts suspected of selling alcoholic beverages or of countenancing dancing condemned by the Ministerial Alliance.

Searching and arresting guests of restaurants whose proprietors and waiters are suspected of selling alcoholic beverages or serving improper characters.

Searching and arresting guests of cafes where the cabarets and the dancing are criticised by the police censors.

Breaking into and searching houses whose owners or tenants are suspected of harboring or making alcoholic beverages.

Arresting the owners or tenants of houses suspected of having or making alcoholic beverages.

Searching all automobiles whose drivers are suspected of carrying some kind of alcoholic beverage.

Searching all citizens suspected of having flasks in their pockets.

Examining all automobiles and stopping and arresting the drivers of automobiles not having license plates for the current year.

Driving all women suspected of being improper characters out of restaurants and then arresting them while walking on the streets.

Breaking into and searching all houses where there is suspicion of immorality.

Arresting and searching all persons found in houses where there is suspicion of immorality.

Raiding some hotels under suspicion of lodging improper characters.

With these and many other onerous duties as censors and regulators of morals and habits and customs and recreations and eating places of citizens, how is it possible for the police force to find time and men to prevent crime or to pursue and arrest murderers, bandits, highwaymen, pickpockets and gun men? When so much time and so many men are occupied with the regulation of all citizens and the search or arrest of law-abiding citizens under suspicion of committing artificial crimes, how can the police deal adequately with real crimes and dangerous criminals?

We submit that the police are overworked—they are probably doing the best they can with multitudinous duties as enforcers of canonical law, summary regulations and criminal law. We bespeak for them patience and forbearance and submissive resignation to the activities of criminals until all men reach the standard of legal righteousness set up by our moral sponsors.

THE RAVAGES OF EDUCATION.

An insurance man, speaking to a congress of general agents and managers in St. Louis, reminded his hearers that of the 10,000 men whose names appear in "Who's Who," only 39 had no schooling, 1908 had a grade-school education, 1545 a high-school training and 5990 are college graduates. Will somebody pass the Missouri solon who argued learnedly against the bill to raise the preparatory requirements of rural teachers in this State by shouting that Abraham Lincoln never had a high-school education?

Mr. Chesterton smartly says the United States began with the Declaration of Independence and ends with prohibition. If we wanted to be nasty we might retort that England began with the Magna Charta and ends with Ireland.

THE COUNTY'S FUNDAMENTAL RIGHT.

Responsible citizens of St. Louis County say that 90 per cent of the people in their localities favor joining St. Louis.

Other responsible citizens of the county impugn that statement and say that a majority of the people oppose annexation.

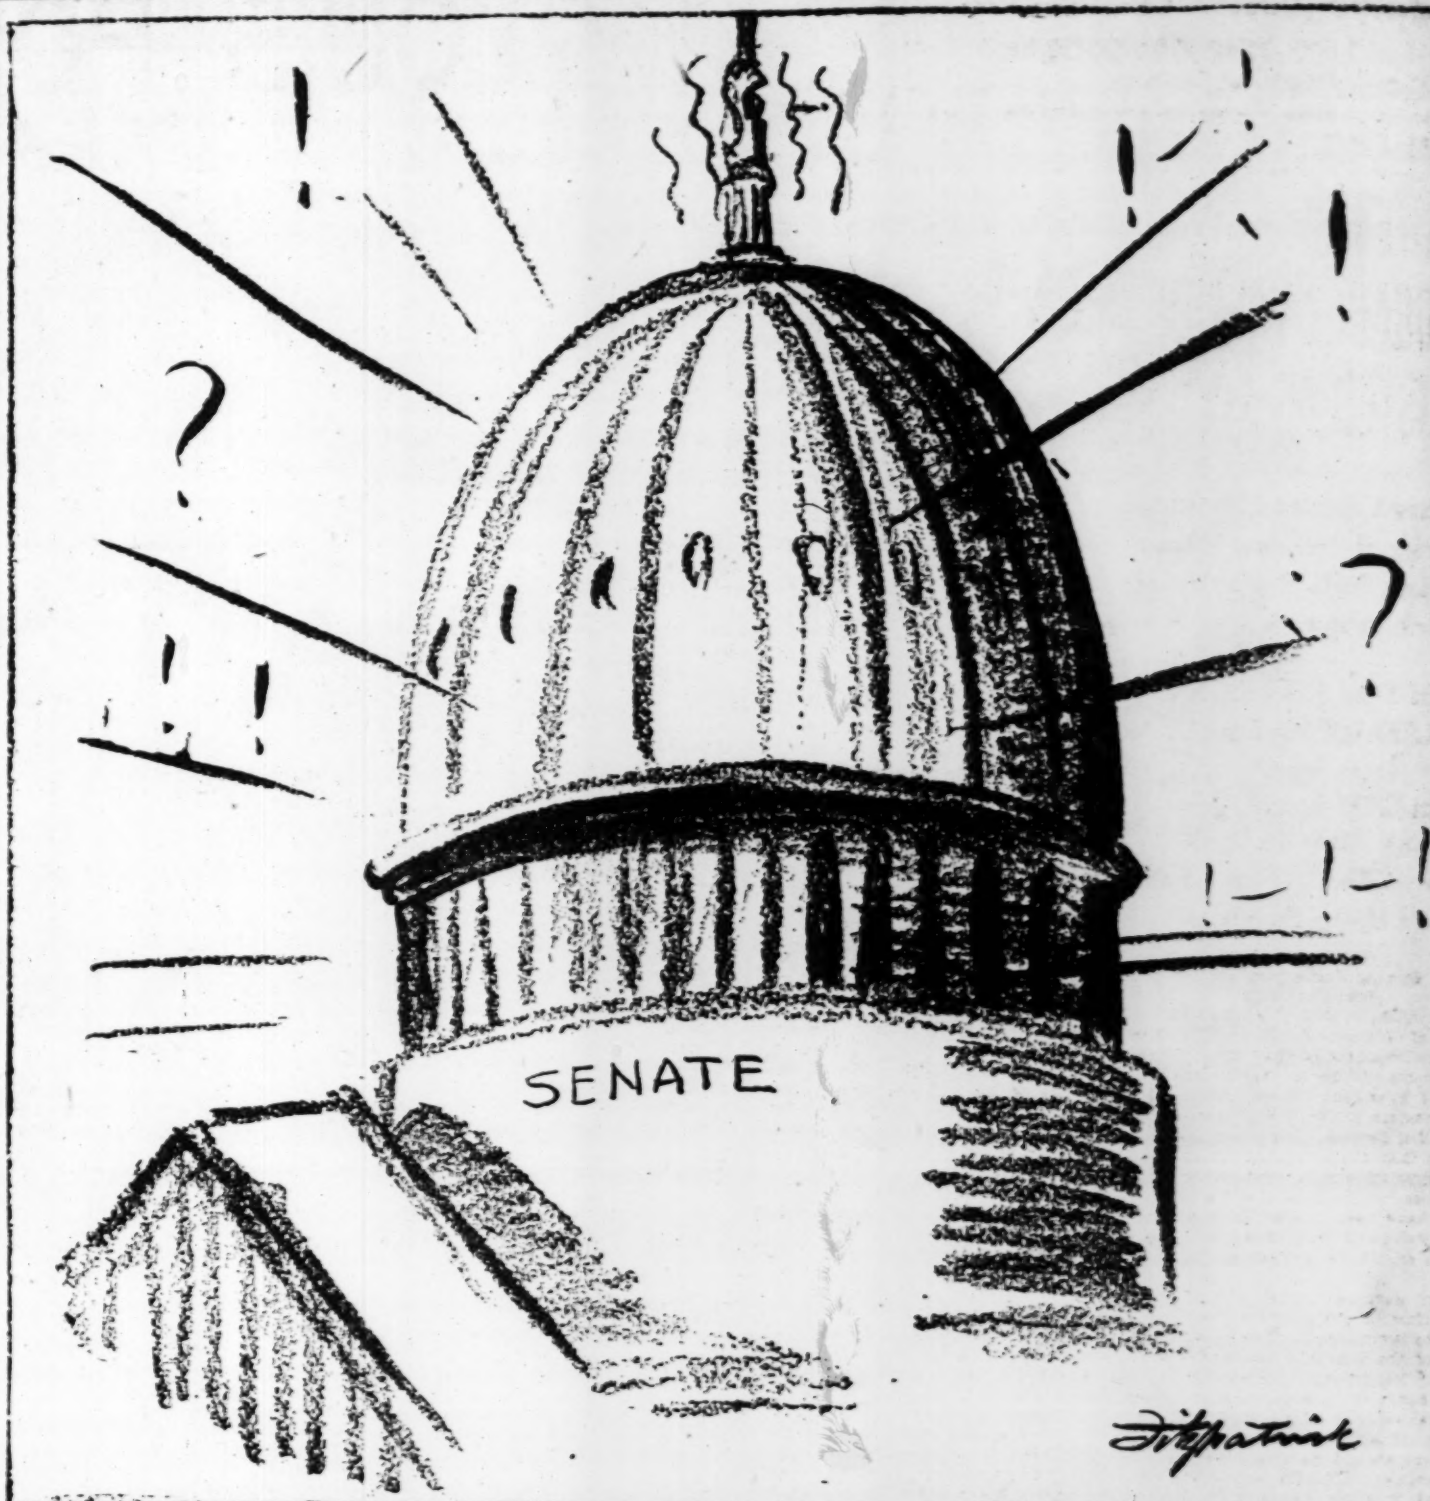

A bill enabling the people of St. Louis County to say whether they want or don't want to be annexed has been introduced in the Legislature and is now in committee. The committee ought to report the bill out favorably without delay, and the Legislature ought to pass it.

The right of the people of St. Louis County to pass upon this question is not debatable; it is fundamental.

THE CHARGE OF THE LAW BRIGADE.

FORWARD the Law Brigade!
Was there a man dismay'd?
Not though the people knew Someone had blunder'd;
There's not to make reply;
There's not to reason why;
There's but to do, or try;
Into the Valley of Laws
Rode they and wonder'd.

Statutes to the right of them,
Statutes to the left of them,
Statutes in front of them,
Statutes behind them;
Storm'd at with laws and bills;
Into the jaws of Laws
Into the Mouth of thrills,
Rode they and blunder'd.

When can their statutes fade?
Oh, the wild bills they made!
All the world wonder'd;
Haw-haw'd the bills they made;
Haw-haw'd the Law Brigade.
"Nineties," they thunder'd.

A BEAR STORY.

Sir: I heard a whale of a bear story while in the hills lately to the effect that a certain mountaineer who was noted for his discipline, trip in search of his cattle and driving them home was an irksome burden to him and that he could not persuade his better half to take upon herself.

One day he came upon his small herd grazing peacefully on the hillside, and as he looked for the shortest route to use in getting within hailing distance he was astonished to see them suddenly throw up their heads and make off toward home with celerity bordering on haste. He soon discovered that the cause of their unusual conduct was the presence of a half-grown grizzly bear that had wandered among them and had stood up to look things over, and one glance at him was enough for the cows. Right there the lazy hill-man conceived a great labor-saving idea: He would catch that cub and train him to scare the cattle at the right time every day and thus avoid having to go after them himself, which would mean that he could loaf almost without interruption.

He caught the cub, and soon had his plan in working order. The bear would get a painful or sweet of one kind and another that the lady would flinch from the kitchen to bribe the bear each time he performed his work.

This kept up all summer, with the result that life was one long period of repose for the author of the scheme, but with the coming of winter the party of the second part, after the manner of his kind, sought a suitable place and dug in to sleep until spring.

The mountaineer, hunched him up and routed him out and kept him at his task. When spring came again he felt that he was to reap the benefit of his ingenuity indefinitely, without effort except a certain amount of prodding in the winter time, but when the weather began to warm up, one day he missed the bear. Though he searched everywhere, he could not find him; and was forced to go for the cows again, much to his discomfort. Late in the summer, while making some long-neglected repairs to his out-fort except a certain amount of prodding in the winter time, but when the weather began to warm up, one day he missed the bear. Though he searched everywhere, he could not find him; and was forced to go for the cows again, much to his discomfort. 15-GALLON STILL AND MASH FOUND IN RAID ON A HOME

Warrant Charging Violation of Volstead Act Issued Against Luxembourg Resident.

Federal prohibition agents yesterday afternoon raided the home of Adolph Kunz, 9371 Sadie avenue, Luxembourg, and found a 15-gallon still in operation, 15 gallons of corn whiskey and a quantity of mash in barrels. The still and products were confiscated and Kunz was arrested. A warrant charging violation of the Volstead act was issued by United States Commissioner Mitchell today. Kunz's bond was fixed at $1000.

Peter Feremingo, 33 years old, of 5136 Daggett avenue, was arrested at his home at 2 a. m. today when Mounted District police visited the home in response to an anonymous letter and found a 15-gallon keg of wine and two gallons of the same liquor in bottles. Feremingo said he had made the wine from grapes seven months ago and it was for his own use.

PROBLEM OF BRINGING HOME BRIDES CONFRONTS ARMY MEN

Many Soldiers in Army of Occupation Have Married German Girls.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch. COBLENZ, Germany, Feb. 23.—The problem of how to bring to the United States the German brides of American soldiers, when the army returns, is troubling the authorities here. It is said 3000 soldiers have married German girls, either openly or secretly. These girls are mostly of the poorer classes, and neither the brides nor their soldier husbands have, as a rule, sufficient funds to take them across the ocean.

Soldiers and the German girls continue to marry despite the fact that since the Paris conference a certain coldness has grown up between people of the occupied regions and the American army.

SUES TO BREAK MOTHER'S WILL

Son of Mrs. Anna F. Sellner Alleges She Was Unduly Influenced.

Suit was filed in the Circuit Court yesterday by William Sellner of 4546 Parkview place, contesting the will of his mother, Mrs. Anna F. Sellner, who died last April at Long Beach, Cal. The defendants are Albert C. Sellner, husband of the deceased; Mrs. Julia Gardner, her daughter; her husband, William A. Gardner, and Miss Julia Beckman, a niece of the deceased. Mr. and Mrs. Gardner live in New York at present.

The petition states that prior to her death Mrs. Sellner owned real estate and personal property in St. Louis valued at $20,000; that she was of unsound mind at the time of the signing of the will, and that Mrs. Julia Gardner persuaded her to give her jewelry and other valuables worth $10,000. The petition asks that an administrator be appointed pending litigation.

THREE BURGLARY INDICTMENTS

Trio Accused of Theft of Safe From Grocer.

Indictments were returned by the grand jury yesterday charging burglary and larceny against William Rush, 32 years old, 2819 Lafayette avenue; Charles Crow, 26, of 905 South Ninth street, and Frank Vernon, 27, 4115 Delmar boulevard. They are charged with stealing a safe containing cash and securities from William Daubendieck of 719 Chouteau avenue, a grocer. They appeared recently from Judge Hochdoerfer's decision to fix their bond at $30,000 each and the Supreme Court reduced it to $10,000 each, but this bond has not been furnished.

POSTOFFICE JOBS PROBABLY WILL BE LISTED AS SPOILS

Consider only one class of postmasters protected by the civil service and the forecast of his early changing of the Wilson executive order protecting all classes will be the signal for a great rush of applicants for office. As a matter of fact the rush already has begun. Senators and Congressmen are telling the President-elect they are being besieged from all quarters, and that there are nine or ten strenuous applicants for every postmastership in the country which can be filled by presidential appointment.

The Postoffice Department offers the greatest opportunity for the reward of the politically faithful. It is the great avenue of party patronage, and in the coming administration it is to be presided over by the directing genius of the Republican political organization, Mr. Will H. Hays. While postmasterships generally are conceded to the Congressmen and Senators, Mr. Hays will have virtually the last say as to who will be recommended.

Mr. Harding will make the formal appointments, but Mr. Hays will give the O.K.

The President's order provides that when a vacancy occurs through the resignation or removal of the incumbent it shall be filled after a civil service examination has been held for the purpose of certifying an eligible list to the President. A vacancy does not occur upon the expiration of the Postmaster's commission, and he is supposed to be re-commissioned if his record has been good, but it is very simple for an inspector to discover a flaw in the Postmaster's record and bring about his removal, thus throwing the position open. This would be possible, even if the executive order is permitted to stand.

BUTCHER ROBBED OF $426 AFTER OPENING SHOP

Two Men Enter Place at 1900 O'Fallon Street and Ask for Sausage, Then One Points Revolver.

PROPRIETOR PUT IN ICEBOX AFTER HOLDUP

Two Men Seize Box With $175, Woman's Receipts From Dancing Class, at Mt. Moriah Temple.

Two men took $426 from Louis Feldman 10 minutes after he had opened his butcher shop at 1900 O'Fallon street today at 5 a. m.

The men upon their entrance asked for sausage and as Feldman started to supply their demand, one drew a revolver and compelled him to hold up his hands, while the other searched him. They also took 52 cents from the cash register, "Put him in the ice box," one of the robbers said. Feldman remained in the ice box for 10 minutes after the robbers' departure, being released by a customer.

Mrs. Calvin C. Hardcastle, a dancing teacher, was preparing last night at 11 o'clock to depart from Mount Moriah Temple, at Garrison and Natural Bridge avenues, with her receipts from a dancing class. She was seated at a table near the entrance with a box containing $175 before her. Her husband, with a few youths, was within the hall. Two men approached the table, seized the box, tipped the table over on Mrs. Hardcastle, ran out, entered an automobile in which there was a third man and drove off.

Two negroes held up Joseph Sagan and one customer in Sagan's grocery store, at 2220 Morgan street, last night at 7:45 o'clock. One took $150 from Sagan's pockets and started to depart. The other negro asked: "Ain't you going to get the cash register?" "Man, I got enough," the first negro replied, and both ran out.

A negro snatched a purse containing $12, jewelry valued at $25 and a pocketbook for a diamond ring from Mrs. Genevieve Brattonoff, 1425 North Thirteenth street, at 7:30 p. m., at High and Biddle streets, and escaped.

TOWN CLUB MEMBERS DISCUSS SUCCESS OF MODERN WOMEN

Question of Modernity of Equality Ideas Is Brought Up.

Seven members of the Town Club, at a dinner last night in the club rooms in the Century Building, discussed the question, "Are Women as Modern as They Think They Are?" Mrs. Lena Sultzer, manager of the savings department of the Mercantile Trust Co., in analyzing the present economic status of women, declared that her advancement in this regard depended largely upon the confidence of her own sex. "When you need a dentist or a physician or a lawyer, give the women a chance," she said.

Mrs. Edith Barnum found the first expression of the modern woman among the women of ancient Greece and Rome, when Aristotle, discussing certain demands of the gentler sex, remarked: "It is natural for women to rule themselves or through the rulers." She related also the revolt of Roman women against laws prescribing manner of dress and forbidding them to appear in chariots, so disturbing a revolt that Cato observed: "If men retained their rights within the family, women would never break out in this manner. If the women had any sense or shame, they would not oppose the law. We are beginning to let them participate in politics. As soon as they begin to be equal with us they will have advantage over us."

Others who discussed various phases of the progress of women were Deaconess Nellie of Christ Church Cathedral, Mrs. Celeste Elmer, an attorney, Miss Jennie Jones, an instructor in Soldan High School, Miss Eula Weeks, mathematics instructor in Soldan, and Mrs. Fred L. English.

NETTRICK FACES CHARGE OF ANTITRUST LAW VIOLATION

Lawyer, Convicted on Trade Conspiracy Count, Spends Night in Tomb.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—John H. Nettrick, lawyer, convicted yesterday with three co-defendants of conspiracy to eliminate competition among plumbing contractors, will face trial March 7, with 51 master plumbers, on another indictment charging violation of the State antitrust laws, it was announced today. The indictment on which Nettrick and the three others were convicted was returned on evidence gathered by the Lockwood committee named by the Legislature to investigate an alleged "building trust."

Given an indeterminate sentence of three years, the convicted men spent last night in the Tomb. An application for stay of commitment pending the filing of an appeal has been entered by counsel.

A Good $40 Spring Suit Is Priced Here $40

WE know this is not a sensational statement—and that it will not appeal to the seeker of bargains—but that's the plain fact, and we hope it will appeal to men who think, men who realize that the clothing industry cannot exist on selling goods at half price.

Spring clothes have a new price standard—you can forget all former prices or imaginary prices—they simply don't exist. Relegate those ancient prices with 35c sugar and 90c eggs—and look at the new prices.

We have tried to make our prices fair and reasonable. We have assembled the products of the best makers, chiefly from the House of Kuppenheimer. We know their clothes will give you service, look well and fit properly. We are rendering a clothing service and are making a reasonable charge for it.

SENATE ORDERS HEIMENZ SCHOOL BILL ENGROSSED

Measure Provides for Nominations of Members of Board in St. Louis by Party Conventions.

WOMEN FAVOR THE PETITION METHOD

Measure Sponsored by Senator Blodgett Who Denies Charge He Broke Pledge to Its Opponents.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 22.—The Senate this morning, by unanimous vote, sent to engrossment the Heimenz bill, authorizing candidates for the St. Louis Board of Education to be chosen by convention. The measure will later be placed on its passage. It was opposed by delegates from 10 women's organizations in a recent hearing. The women desired to follow the petition plan of naming candidates, as permitted by the existing law.

The Heimenz measure had the support of politicians of both parties. Senator Blodgett of St. Louis, who introduced it in the Senate, supported it in a speech today. He denied a statement made by some women opponents of the Heimenz bill, that he had promised to kill the bill in committee. If it should be shown that it was not supported by as many as seven members of the Board of Education.

The Heimenz bill on Monday was reported by a House committee without recommendation. Mrs. S. C. Horman of 2911 North Twentieth street, Republican City Committee woman of the Second Ward of St. Louis and Mrs. Josephine Hamersmith of 2107 St. Vincent avenue, who is active in Republican affairs in the Fifteenth Ward of St. Louis, appeared yesterday on the floor of the House lobbying for the passage of the Heimenz bill.

They said they had come at the request of Chairman Strodtman of the Republican City Committee to work for the bill and that their expenses were being paid by the Republican City Committee. They arrived in Jefferson City Tuesday night and said the length of their stay will be determined by the results obtained.

Statement by Mrs. Horman. Mrs. Horman made the following statement: "We represent the rank and file of the Republican party in St. Louis. We feel that the members of the board could best be nominated by the convention method. We do not approve of the idea of that other set of women down here from St. Louis opposing the bill. They want to be able to have selected a superintendent of their choosing. The League of Women Voters is on the fence. We do not think these women should dictate in that matter."

JURY ACQUITS MAN OF HIGHWAY ROBBERY CHARGE

Dewey Leigh of Venice, Ill., However, Still Has Charge of Carrying Concealed Weapons.

A jury in Judge Hall's division of the Circuit Court yesterday acquitted Dewey Leigh of the first degree charge of robbery in the first degree. Leigh was indicted on a charge of holding up Joseph C. Bone of 1223 South Eighth street, on Jan. 1 and robbing him of $23.83.

Bone testified he went to the police station several days later on business and saw Leigh among a crowd of prisoners being "shown up." Leigh had been arrested on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. Bone said he recognized Leigh as the man who robbed him. Leigh denied the charge on the witness stand. A charge of carrying concealed weapons is pending against him.

OIL COMPANIES REDUCING FIELD EMPLOYEES' WAGES

Special to the Post-Dispatch. AUSTIN, Tex.—Several of the larger oil-producing companies have reduced the wages of their field employees. These reductions, however, still leave these workers exceptionally well paid, it is asserted by the companies.

Under the new rates drillers will receive $3 a day instead of $2.75 and $100 a month formerly paid to new and old employees, respectively, old employees being those working for the company a year or more. Derrick men will receive $5.50 a day, as against $5.00 for new and $4 for old employees, respectively. Roustabouts and connection foremen will receive $2.00 a month as against $2.00. New and old drillers, helpers, firemen, watchmen, pipefitters and pumpers will receive $5 as against the old rate of $4 and $5.25 for new and old hands.

Farmer and Wife Found Dead. PEORIA, Ill., Feb. 22.—Sheriff's officers at Toulon, battered in the door to the house of Jarvis Gendrich, a wealthy farmer, and found his body and that of his wife last night. Her head had been crushed and her throat cut. The top of his head had been blown off by a shotgun.

Woman Swallows Poisonous Solution
Mrs. Rose Weiss, 48 years old, of 2020 Dickson street, swallowed a solution of match heads dissolved in water at her home last night and was taken to the city hospital. She refused to tell the police why she drank the solution. Her husband, Jacob, said he knew of no reason why his wife should want to end her life. Her condition was said to be critical.

Banish Catarrh
Breathe Hyomel for Two Minutes and Stuffed Up Head Will Go

If you want to get safe relief from catarrh, cold in the head or from an irritating cough in the shortest time, breathe Hyomel.

It will clear out your head in two minutes and allow you to breathe freely, awake or asleep, or money refunded. Hyomel should and can be used in one day, and relieve you of disgusting sniffles, hawking, spitting and offensive breath in a week.

Hyomel is made chiefly from eucalyptus, a soothing, healing, germ-killing antiseptic that comes from the eucalyptus forests of inland Australia, where catarrh, asthma, and other bronchial troubles are seldom known.

Hyomel is pleasant and easy to breathe. Just pour a few drops into the Hard Rubber Inhaler, use as directed and relief is almost certain.

A Complete Hyomel Course, including inhaler and one bottle of Hyomel, costs but little at Wolf-Wilson Drug Co. and drugists everywhere.

As We Viewed It, the Fighting Harp Appeared to Need Considerable Tuning Up

Welling, Knocked Down In Fifth by Leonard, Still Dazed an Hour After Fight

Champion's Heavy Blows Shake Up Chicago Fighter Badly, but He Stays the Eight Rounds by Holding and Good Defense.—Crowd Fails to Appreciate Leonard's Fine Work.

By John E. Wray.

Joe Welling ever gets his hands on a pugilistic title he ought to be able to hold on to it. After gloving eight rounds of defensive battling against champion Benny Leonard at the Coliseum, last night, a majority of about 100 persons present would probably have agreed that Joe was a holding company all to himself.

From the time the anxious Joe met Leonard toe to toe, Welling, after the first bell, to the closing, after the eighth, it manifested that he was in the ring to avoid being knocked out; and, consistent to that purpose, he clung to his foe at the slightest sign of trouble. His best defense was a left-arm grip around the champion's neck, which he occasionally took advantage of to pull the foe into illegal punches, despite the efforts of the referee, who continually tried to break the grip.

But, despite Joe's clinging and illegal hitting, he was outclassed by his opponent throughout the contest. He made to appear afraid, at times, more than one occasion he seemed about to receive the farwest knock.

The peak of the battle was reached in the fifth round, when Leonard, who had earnestly tried to coax Welling to open up, finally slipped a through Welling's face guard and allowed it to light Welling with a blow to the chin. Welling, whose defense against Leonard's right hand was good throughout, broke the force of the second punch by inclining his head with the blow; but nevertheless it had sufficient power to knock him down.

Welling arose on one knee immediately and rested there while the referee counted nine, when he rose to his feet and promptly resumed his all-right defense. In this he may have been unwittingly aided by the referee, Walter Heiser, who stepped forward and ordered Welling to finish Welling and ordered Chicagoan to remove the small crystals of resin which adhered to the back of his glove when he went down. This diversion, a remark which took about two or three seconds, which to regain his poise, enough to assure the passing of the crisis.

For the remainder of the fight, although Leonard made a remark on his ability and variety of boxing, Welling refused to be duped by false leads, but kept stepping and stepping, and kept stepping, ready to go to cover at the slightest sign of a storm.

Although plugged hard to the law of the champion's right and stabbed repeatedly with the left in the sixth and eighth, Welling never flinched in apparent trouble and ended the fight hardly marked. Leonard's only sign of battle was a slight nose-bleed.

The crowd, or part of it, did not appear to appreciate the contest and after each round boxes mangled with the cheers, the displeasure being largely directed at Welling, whose every first method failed to make a hit. The defensive tactics of Joe also made the champion himself seem below par. It takes two to make a fight and Leonard was handicapped when Welling elected to play it safe. At no time did Joe stand toe-to-toe with the champion and exchange wallops, but he remained content to sneak in a blow when he felt there was no damaging counter awaiting him.

Clever at this sort of thing he once or twice rocked Leonard with hard rights, but the champion's activity was in no wise diminished thereby.

The Fight Round by Round

ROUND ONE—As the men came to the ring center, Welling showed an advantage in height and reach; he seemed anxious to get the calm and well-poised champion, who bore no mark of his profession, not even the usual concave nose-bridge.

Welling began stepping in toward Leonard, who moved about quickly, feeling out his foe with light lefts that soon drove Welling into a clinch. Welling held, with his left arm around Leonard's neck. Leonard tore loose and darted left to his opponent's head and body without much damage, except to force Welling into another clinch. The referee loosened Welling's neck hold on the champion. Welling seemed worried and watched his defense carefully, although constantly stepping in. He hit Leonard's body while holding him around the neck, but was unable to score in any other way. Leonard was boxing rings around Welling, tantalizing him with light lefts to head and body.

ROUND TWO—Welling again began stepping in well-covered. Leonard's light blows landed. Welling clinched as Leonard made him miss. He held and waited for the foe when broken loose, received five successive lefts to the face and then went in close to avoid it. The crowd booed and Leonard's corner seemed worried at this Leonard gave Welling a boxing lesson in this round despite the Chicagoan's safety-first. The crowd gave a chorus of boos at the close of the round.

During the intermission, Referee Heiser said something to both men, and Billy Gibson, manager of Leonard, started to enter the ring, but was shoved back by Leonard himself, as the going was about to ring.

ROUND THREE—This round was a repetition of the previous one, with Leonard constantly feeling for an opening for his right, and Welling covering and holding, despite the referee's warnings.

In spite of Welling's caution, Leonard reached him twice with hard rights. One of them sent the Chicagoan stepping in well-covered. Leonard's light blows landed. Welling clinched as Leonard made him miss. He held and waited for the foe when broken loose, received five successive lefts to the face and then went in close to avoid it. ROUND FOUR—Welling again began stepping in well-covered. Leonard's light blows landed. Welling clinched as Leonard made him miss. He held and waited for the foe when broken loose, received five successive lefts to the face and then went in close to avoid it. The crowd booed and Leonard's corner seemed worried at this Leonard gave Welling a boxing lesson in this round despite the Chicagoan's safety-first. The crowd gave a chorus of boos at the close of the round.

During the intermission, Referee Heiser said something to both men, and Billy Gibson, manager of Leonard, started to enter the ring, but was shoved back by Leonard himself, as the going was about to ring.

ROUND FIVE—Welling, crowding in, landed a hard right that vibrated Leonard and sent him covering to the ropes. Welling could find no room for his right hand, and he was forced to devote his energy to the corner. Leonard then took up the boxing and fought a regular boxing match. Leonard's right hand was effective, and Welling was forced to cover. Leonard's right hand was effective, and Welling was forced to cover.

ROUND SIX—Leonard danced around, seeking an opening in Welling's defense. He was not successful, but he was not discouraged. He was not discouraged, but he was not discouraged. He was not discouraged, but he was not discouraged.

ROUND SEVEN—Welling, crowding in, landed a hard right that vibrated Leonard and sent him covering to the ropes. Welling could find no room for his right hand, and he was forced to devote his energy to the corner. Leonard then took up the boxing and fought a regular boxing match. Leonard's right hand was effective, and Welling was forced to cover. Leonard's right hand was effective, and Welling was forced to cover.

ROUND EIGHT—The crowd began putting on wraps and leaving during the fight. Leonard was not discouraged, but he was not discouraged. He was not discouraged, but he was not discouraged.

ROUND NINE—The crowd's thirst for blood and slugging was thoroughly sated in the semi-windup wherein the rugged Bill Burns punished Mike O'Donnell with cruel body blows throughout the eighth round. Only the game of fighters could have fought back, as did O'Donnell, whose insides must have been thoroughly shifted about by the terrific wallops to the Hillman's unprotected commissary.

Mike bore in constantly, throughout the fight, but his blows were wild. Some of them rocked Burns and he was left in the main it was O'Donnell who took the grudge. Mike's eye was badly swollen at the close and his body seemed to have been caved in, but he was still able to wobble.

Jim "Slim" Brennan of Philadelphia did a fine job of referee work in this event and received almost as much applause as the fighters.

RESULTS OF COLISEUM BOXING CONTESTS

BENNY LEONARD, lightweight champion, decisively outpointed Joe Welling, eight rounds, catch weight.

BILL BURNS, Duluth, gave Mike O'Donnell of St. Louis a terrific lacing; eight rounds, weight 145 pounds.

GEORGE BUTCH, St. Louis, knocked out Dewey Case, Springfield, in first round; weight, 128.

MORRIS MICKEY, St. Louis, won from Young O'Dowd in the third round; O'Dowd giving up after taking a beating; weight, 135 pounds.

ROUND FOUR—Welling thus far had failed to land a clean blow with any force, although he had struck several illegal ones. He again held Leonard around the neck and left Benny Brock away and scored, forcing Welling to come in and clinch again.

Valley Leaders Will Get Real Test in Battle With Jayhawks at Lawrence.

The University of Missouri basketball team opens the second half of its season's play with the Kansas team at Lawrence tonight. The Tigers have won 14 consecutive games, but will have to play at their best to keep the record clean in the two games with the Jayhawks.

Forrest Allen took his squad to Columbia a month ago and lost two games by close scores. In the first contest the two teams fought on even terms until three minutes from the close of play when the Bengals sprouted to a four-point lead.

The only other conference contest this week-end will bring Ames and Grinnell together tomorrow night. The Cyclones won the first game of the series at Grinnell last week.

It is not unlikely that this will be the last season during which the Missouri Valley Conference will carry such pretentious schedules. Agitation in many corners is designed against the present season of 18 contests and especially the four-game trip.

The continued strain of a week tour is injurious to the players, according to a number of the coaches.

Soldan Opposes Central. Soldan can clinch the High School League court championship tonight by defeating Central in the feature game of the double bill at the Cleveland auditorium. The midcity quintet has a poor record this season, but in almost every game has forced its opponents to the limit. A defeat for Soldan would force the five into a tie for the leadership with McKinley.

The other contest brings together Vtaman and Cleveland. The two teams are on even terms and both of their games thus far have been decided in the last moments of play.

St. Louis U. High Wins. Two scholastic games were played here yesterday. The St. Louis University High School team easily defeated Mount Olive (D. I.) High, at College Hall, 42 to 23. Chamblade College sprang a surprise by gaining a 25-to-19 victory over Central High on the latter team's court.

Girls' Municipal Games. The three games in the Girls' Municipal Basketball League play were all decided by top heavy scores. Results: Ashland 24, Belair 12; Mount Auburn 18, Trinity 5; Lafayette 19, Hilltoppers 2.

Warner Signs With Cubs. PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 25.—Honus Warner, former Central and New York State leaguer, last night signed a contract with the Chicago Cubs and forwarded it immediately. He expects to depart for Chicago next Wednesday, when he says he expects to train with the team for Pasadena, Cal. Warner had held up his contract for several weeks because of difficulty in disposing of his restaurant.

Catcher From Vernon. 25.—W. B. Hendricks, catcher from the Indianapolis Association, has been announced by the Giants also.

What About Cobb?

Umpire Billy Evans Discusses Possibilities of Detroit's New Manager.

By Billy Evans.

WHAT do you think of Ty Cobb's chances to succeed as manager of the Detroit club?

Since Cobb's appointment to succeed Hugh Jennings, that question has been fired at me. It is a question I hardly feel competent to answer.

Cobb has been conceded by most critics to be the greatest ball player of all time. I know I have never seen a player who could do all things so wonderfully well. In no department of the game is Cobb weak. He excels everywhere. Certain players may do one particular thing better than Cobb, but none can do all things nearly so well.

Of the latter-day players, George Sisler of the St. Louis Browns is one of the few who compare favorably with Cobb in all departments. Cobb knows baseball. He knows how the game should be played. And, as for the execution of his knowledge, no one could do it better.

Just how well Cobb will be able to impart that knowledge to his players remains to be seen. Cobb has the fighting spirit. To what extent he can imbue his players with that spirit also remains to be determined. Cobb has enthusiasm. If he can impart that enthusiasm to his athletes, the Tigers will be a spirited, fighting team.

As a player Cobb has always been a high-strung, excitable individual, perhaps prone to jump at hasty conclusions. A manager of a ball club, a major league club in particular, will bump into a lot of trying situations in a season; situations that will test the nerves and temperament of the most even-dispositioned person. Unquestionably many a time this summer Ty will have to hold his peace, when he perhaps would feel more like exploding.

Ty Cobb has a hair-trigger brain on the ball field. No player can grasp a situation more quickly. Seems to me as if he always has the thing figured out a day or two in advance. I think Cobb's most difficult task will be to control the failure of his players to do things which for him would be easy. It will be hard for him to see some players fail to execute a play, which, perhaps, means the game, and failure being due to slow thinking, which, of course, is unknown to Cobb.

Cobb is the greatest of all players. Great things will be expected of him as manager. No one ever assumed the leadership of a major league club with a greater knowledge of the game. However, there is a considerable gap between the duties of a star player and manager.

ZIVIC IS WINNER OVER NEW YORK CHAMPION. NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Jack Zivic of the Willow A. C. of Pittsburgh turned up rather smartly as the hero of the final in the intercity boxing tournament in Madison Square Garden last night by defeating Archie Walker, New York State lightweight champion. It took Zivic an extra round to accomplish victory, owing to a sorry disagreement between judges J. W. Shump of Grace Club and John P. Boyle of the Cleburn Club.

Zivic knocked Walker down in each of the first three rounds, but Boyle, to the astonishment of the spectators, ordered the referee to stop the fight. The referee, thereupon, ordered another round. Zivic had been without question the crowd set up for a big fight, and the crowd set up for a big fight.

The hour was one of the most thrilling affairs that amateurs have afforded in years. Both men are crackpicks of the 135-pound division and their work would have put professionals in the same division to shame.

SIR THOMAS LIPTON MAY ENTER YACHT IN EVENT. (Copyright, 1921.) LONDON, Feb. 25.—In view of the persistent rumors that Sir Thomas Lipton would enter his yacht Shamrock in the trans-Atlantic race next July for the cup offered by Albert, King of the Belgians, a representative of the Post-Dispatch, put the question direct here today to the veteran yachtsman. He replied: "I am seriously considering entering my 23-metre Shamrock, but will not be able to say definitely for several weeks."

The 23-metre Shamrock served as a trial boat for his challenger for the America's cup last year. She is built on sturdy lines and could easily be rigged for an ocean race.

Sir Thomas will leave in a day or two for a short visit to the south of France and no doubt will make his decision when he returns.

JACKSON AND DUNDEE WILL BATTLE TONIGHT. NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Johnny Dundee and Willie Jackson meet for the tenth time tonight in Madison Square Garden.

The feud between Jackson and Dundee began with Jackson's knockout victory over the little Italian in Philadelphia. Dundee has been trying to redeem himself since that night by knocking out Jackson. He claims it is a feud that first began when Jackson, incensed at what he calls being belittled a great achievement, has tried to repeat the action, but sprightly John's uncanny ringmanship has thwarted him. Dundee took an unmerciful thumping at Newark at Jackson's hands and then came back with a victory over Bill.

PAULIAN ELEVEN PLAYS INNISFAILS ON SUNDAY. The Paulians of the Municipal Soccer Association will face the Innisfails in the first game of the double-header at Cardinal Field Sunday afternoon. The Ben Millers will oppose the St. Louis Screw Co. in the second game.

The Paulians, who made a creditable showing in the pennant race in group I at Fairground Park, boast of some of the best of Municipal League players. They are being used to fill the vacancy created by the absence of the Souling, leaders of the professional league, who will be in Chicago opposing the Bricklayers in a cup game.

GANS AND MURPHY BOX IN PASTIME FEATURE. Kid Ford of Racine, Wis., and Eugene Simms of Memphis meet in the semi-windup to the Gans-Murphy bout at the Pastime Athletic Club tonight. The contest is scheduled to go eight rounds, with the weight being 135 pounds.

Kid Inky of St. Louis and Young Rawlings of Memphis are to furnish the entertainment in the opening bout, which is scheduled to go eight rounds, the weight being 125 pounds.

House Passes Boxing Bill. DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 25.—The Lake bill to legalize boxing and place it under control of a state commission passed the House yesterday, 60 to 44.

CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—Zeb Terry, second baseman of the Chicago National League club, has signed his 1921 contract, it was announced today.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY
By James J. Montague.

TWAS EVER THUS.

A squad of men come up the street
And work a week or more
To lay a pavement trim and neat
Before our cottage door.
And as the same we contemplate
We say, "How kind they are!
Now we can drive up to our gate
And not destroy our car!"

And then appears a second gang
With villainous intent,
To toss their mattocks with a bang
Upon our new cement.
And then with many a pry and wrench,
They rend the pave in twain.
And dig a deep and ugly trench
To hold a water main.

The trench is leveled by and by,
The pavement is put back,
But when the surface once is dry
There yawns a ghastly crack.
And then a fourth uncleanly crew
With an unholly din,
Rips up the whole blamed street anew
To put a gas pipe in.

And when they lay the pave again,
More burrowing human moles
Disguised as pick-ax wielding men
Will dig it full of holes.
In mine, or any other town,
Now, as in days of yore,
They only put a pavement down
To dig it up once more!

YOU'RE SAFE.
Save daylight. The Government
can't take any of it away from you
by dreams of the income tax.

AND LOOK WHAT HAPPENED.
We aren't worrying about Sir
Phillip Gibbs' assertion that Russia has the biggest standing army in the world. She had the biggest standing army in the world in 1914.

"Where do you come from?" he says.
"I come from Ballybunton," says
